THE CHOLERA
DEPRIVED OF ITS HORRORS BY PURIFYING
AND ENRICHING THE BLOOD.
NOW IS THE TIME TO USE A PREVENTIVE.
There is none equal to
HELMBOLD'S
HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID
EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.
THE CHOLERA

Is defective vitalization of the blood, and when the blood loses its

LIFE GIVING POWER,

It causes relaxation of the contractile powers of the blood vessels of the body, and the intestines open their myriad blood vessels, and all the albuminous or flesh-making material passes off from the bowels.

PURE AND HEALTHY BLOOD RESISTS DISEASE.

And while there may be no occasion for alarm, those of impure blood are most liable to suffer.

NOT A FEW

of the worst disorders that affect mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect Helmbold's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instils the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood.

Scrofulous, mercurial and syphilitic diseases destroy whatever part they may attack. Thousands die annually from protracted diseases of this class, and from the abuse of mercury. Visit any hospital, asylum and prison, and satisfy yourself of the truthfulness of the assertion. The system best resists the inroads of these diseases by a judicious combination of Tonics.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA

Is a Tonic of the greatest value—arresting the most inveterate diseases after the glands are destroyed and the bones already affected. This is the testimony of thousands who have used and prescribed it for the last 16 years.

AN INTERESTING LETTER is published in the Medico-Chirurgical Review, on the subject of the extract of Sarsaparilla in venereal affections, by Benjamin Travers, F. R. S., &c. Speaking of Syphilis, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states, "That no remedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is in the strictest sense a tonic, with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken and yet so irritable as renders other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious."

TWO TABLESPOONFULS of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

The decoction is exceedingly troublesome, as it is necessary to prepare it fresh every day, and the syrup is still more objectionable, as it is weaker than the decoction; for a fluid saturated with sugar is susceptible of holding in solution much less extractive matter than water alone, and the syrup is otherwise objectionable, for the patient is frequently nauseated, and the stomach surfeited by the large proportion of sugar taken with each dose of Sarsaparilla, and which is of no use whatever, except to keep the decoction from spoiling. Here the advantages and superiority of the Fluid Extract in a comparative view are strikingly manifest.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, March 13.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

The Civil Rights Bill was again reported from the Judiciary Committee in the House to-day, with most of its objectionable features stricken out. That part of the first section asserting civil rights in general terms was stricken out, being the following words, viz.: "And there shall be no discrimination in civil rights or immunities among citizens of the United States, in any State or Territory of the United States, on account of race or color, or previous condition of slavery." The civil rights guaranteed by this bill are then defined as follows, to wit: "The same right to make and enforce contracts, to sue, be parties and give evidence to inherit, purchase, lease, sell, hold and convey real and personal property, and to full and equal benefit of all laws and proceedings for the security of person and property as is enjoyed by white citizens, and shall be subject to like punishment, pains and penalties, and to none other, any law, statute or ordinance, regulation or custom to the contrary notwithstanding. The bill was passed, ayes 109; nays 39. The Republicans voting against it were Mr. BINGHAM of Ohio, Mr. BLOW of Missouri, Mr. SMITH of Kentucky, Mr. PHELPS of Maryland, and Mr. LATHAM of West Virginia. Mr. BINGHAM voted against it because his constitutional amendment, embodying the same principle, did not prevail; and Mr. BINGHAM thinks that such rights ought to be first guaranteed in the Constitution. Such Conservative Republicans as Mr. DELANO, Mr. DAVIS and Mr. HILL voted for the bill. It returns to the Senate for concurrence in the House amendment.

COLORADO.

The discussion upon the admission of Colorado as a State in the Senate to-day assumed a different form from what was expected at the opening of the debate yesterday. The prayer for admission to the Union of States was nominally before the Senate, and in the end was disposed of; but the debate was after all principally upon the policy or impolicy of admitting the young Territories of the West and Northwest, with a mere village population, to equality in votes and influence in the Senate with the great States of New-York, Pennsylvania and Ohio. This subject has for some time past engaged the attention of Senators, and the result of to-day's proceedings discloses a settled purpose among members of both political parties to oppose hereafter the admission of new States until the population shall be up to or nearly equal to the numerical basis of representation for a member of Congress in the old States. It was shown to-day that it was practicable for an individual, ambitious of Senatorial or other official honor, with good management and reasonable financial resources, to literally carry the destiny of a sparsely populated territory in his breeches-pocket. The inequality of representation like this was by Mr. WADE likened to the rotten borough system of Europe. Montana, New-Mexico and other aspirants for State privileges and responsibilities, some of which are already here knocking at the door for admission as States of the Union, must now make up their population several fold greater than they had expected to get along with. For beside the Senators who voted to-day against the admission of Colorado, and generally upon the principle we have above stated, large portions of those who voted for her admission announce that hereafter they will oppose all applications for admission where the showing is not clear that the population is ample to justify a State Government. The vote on the admission of Colorado was: Ayes, 14; nays, 21. So the other star that was to have been added to our brilliant galaxy was rejected. This vote was in no wise partisan, the Republicans and Democrats being divided among themselves on the questions involved. The votes in the affirmative were, in general, cast upon the ground that Congress had passed an enabling act in 1864, which it was believed held out inducements to the people of Colorado to make this application, notwithstanding a previous vote had been taken under that act, and the State Constitution rejected.

THE PARIS EXHIBITION.

General BANKS made a very brilliant and forcible speech in the House this afternoon on the bill making appropriations for the Paris exposition. He urged in a very effective manner the necessity of making a highly creditable exhibition of the natural and mechanical resources of the country. The effect of such a display on European nations would repay the Government and country beyond all calculation. In the course of his speech, Mr. BANKS referred so eloquently to the vast and undeveloped wealth of this country that he was applauded on the floor, and at the conclusion of his speech was congratulated by scores of members who had listened with profound attention. Mr. WASHBURNE indicated a disposition to oppose the bill, but it is hardly possible that the effect of Gen. BANKS' admirable speech can be so far overcome as to defeat the proposition.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS—MR. SHERMAN'S BILL.

Mr. Sherman's joint referred to the Senate Finance Committee to-day will tend to establish confidence in the minds of those who are apprehensive lest the Secretary of the Treasury may rush too rapidly to a specie basis. There is no reason to believe that Mr. MCCULLOCH will do anything to which serious objection can be taken, and Mr. SHERMAN'S action is not suggested by a lack of confidence in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury. There are some, however, who think that a statute defining the extent of power to contract would have a wholesome effect upon the public mind, and therefore Mr. SHERMAN'S resolution which provides that the aggregate outstanding United State notes not bearing interest, and including fractional currency, shall not be diminished below $420,000,000. It also provides that a surplus in the Treasury exceeding $40,000,000 in coin, and $40,000,000 in currency shall be promptly applied to the payment of accruing indebtedness, and to the purchase or payment of interest-bearing debt of the United States; but the amount of interest-bearing legal tender notes shall not be diminished by payment or conversion at a rate exceeding $5,000,000 per month. This joint resolution is to remain in force one year after its passage.

PANIC AMONG SMUGGLERS.

Judge SARGENT, the Commissioner of Customs, is daily receiving evidence of the panic into which the smugglers along the border are precipitated by the arrests and exposures effected through the detectives and other Custom-house officials. His office is a museum of smugglers' implements. Cans used by women for carrying whisky attract attention for their ingenuity and variety. One of his agents writes: "I am well pleased with your men on this line, (Canada.) They are fighting it out manfully. As a whole, the line is well manned. The smugglers are suffering terribly. Still liquor comes in. The effect on all the border population is shockingly demoralizing. An officer told me that in every instance where he had made seizures, the parties, however respectable they had been, offered to purge themselves by the most solemn oaths."

THE EVIDENCE BEFORE THE RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE.

Mr. LAFLIN, from the Joint Committee on Printing, reported a resolution to-day authorizing the printing of 25,000 copies of the evidence submitted by the Reconstruction Committee.

THE WITHDRAWAL OF BONDED GOODS.

The bill extending the time for the withdrawal of bonded goods from warehouses, which has been a nightmare to Mr. SPRAGUE in the Senate so long, to-day passed the House, and now only awaits the President's signature to take effect.

HARBOR AND RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.

The House Committee on Commerce are now engaged in the consideration of a River and Harbor Improvement Bill, which, it is probable, will be reported at an early day.

UNION GENERALS IN THE SENATE.

During the session of the Senate this afternoon, Maj.-Gen. CUSTAR and Maj.-Gen. J. H. WILSON, under whose command JEFF. DAVIS was captured, were upon the floor. The Senators discovering the presence of these military heroes, formed a circle around them and warmly shook their hands.

THE MURDERER QUANTRELL.

The ubiquitous, many-lived QUANTRELL has turned up here—so it is said to-night—and has been identified by a United States Senator and some of the members of the latter's family.

REVENUE.

The Internal Revenue receipts for to-day are unusually small, amounting to three hundred and ninety thousand and fourteen dollars and seventeen cents.

UNION SENATORS IN CAUCUS.

The Union Senators assembled in caucus this morning at the Capitol, and we learn that there was a general attendance, including Messrs. DOOLITTLE, LANE, of Kansas, and STEWART. Mr. DIXON is confined to his house by indisposition. It is understood that the proceedings were harmonious, indicating a desire to unite on some constitutional amendment regulating the basis of representation, with the hope of obtaining a proposed amendment acceptable to all of the majority, the various propositions now before the Senate were referred to the Union Senators who are members of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction, and they were instructed to report at an early day. The levee at the White House this evening is a perfect jam, the largest attendance of the season.

HON. ALEX. H. STEPHENS.

Hon. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS, of Georgia, is now on his way to Washington.

GEN. SHERMAN'S GRANTS OF LAND TO THE FREEDMEN.

An order has been issued by the Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen's affairs at Charleston, in which it is said that the grants of land to the freed people, in compliance with Gen. SHERMAN'S special field order, will be regarded as good and valid, while arrangments will be made to accommodate former owners on other lands not otherwise appropriated.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR FORTIFICATION.

The fortification bill which passed the House to-day, and to be acted upon by the Senate, makes the following appropriations: For Fort Wayne, near Detroit, $50,000; Fort Ontario, at Oswego, N. Y., $50,000; Fort Montgomery, at the outlet of Lake Champlain, N. Y., $50,000; Fort Jammel, at Portland, Me., $35,000; Fort Georges, on Hog Island Ledge, Portland, Me., $50,000; Fort Constitution, Portsmouth, N. H., $75,000; Fort Winthrop, Boston, Mass., $30,000; Fort Warren, Boston, Mass., $25,000; for sea-wall of Great Brewster's Island, Boston Harbor, Mass., $75,000; sea-walls of Deer and Lovell's Islands, Boston Harbor, Mass., $50,000; fort at the entrance of New-Bedford, Mass., $80,000; Fort Schuyler, East River, New-York, $30,000; fort at Willett's Point, opposite the latter, $50,000; repairs of Fort Hamilton, New-York, $30,000; fort on the site of Fort Tompkins, Staten Island, $50,000; fort at Sandy Hook, N. J., $50,000; repairs of Fort Mifflin, near Philadelphia, $25,000; construction of permanent platforms for modern cannon of large calibre in existing fortifications of important harbors, $100,000; repairs of Fort Washington, on the Potomac River, $20,000; Fort Monroe, Va., $80,000; Fort Taylor, Key West, $100,000; fort on Ship Island, Miss., $10,000; fort at Fort Point, San Francisco Bay, $125,000; fort at Alcatraz Island, San Francisco Bay, $90,000; for the survey of the northern and northwestern lakes, including Lake Superior, $150,000; fort at Lime Point, Cal., $75,000; Fort Clinch, Florida, $50,000; for the purchase of sites now occupied and lands proposed to to be occupied for permanent sea-coast defences, $35,000.

RETURN OF GEN. VAN WYCK.

Gen. C. H. VAN WYCK has returned from South Carolina, where he has been acting as counsel for Col. TYLER and Capt. METCALF, of the Fifty-sixth New-York Volunteers, who were on trial at Columbus, charged with malfeasance in office. They were acquitted.

THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court of the United States to-day took up the exparte cases of A. H. GARLAND and ROBERT H. MARR, involving the constitutionality of the test oath. Mr. MARR commenced the argument in these cases.

LOSS OF THE BARK MUSTANG ON VANCOUVER'S ISLAND.

The United States Consul at Victoria, Vancouver's Island, informs the State Department, under date of Feb. 8, of the wreck of the bark Mustang, of New-York, bound from San Francisco, on the west coast of Vancouver's Island, on Jan. 21. MARCELLUS TOBRIA and three of the crew were brought to Victoria by a trader named Capt. SPRING. The remainder of the crew, several in number, have not been heard of.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE....TUESDAY, March 13.

PETITION FOR A PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

Mr. SUMNER offered a petition for a protective tariff, which was referred to the Committee on Finance; also a petition for an international copy-right law, which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

Mr. LANE, of Kansas, introduced a resolution instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to report on Thursday next the following amendment to the Constitution:

1. Basing representation on the number of male inhabitants over twenty-one years of age.
2. Basing direct taxes, among the several States, according to the legal value of real and personal property.
3. Pledging the faith of the Government to the redemption of the loyal national debt, without in any way scaling or reducing its value.
4. Prohibiting the General Government or any State Government from assuming or paying any portion of the Confederate debt.
5. Prohibiting the General Goverment or any State Government from paying for any slave property.

Mr. LANE said he would like to have the above considered now.

Mr. TRUMBULL said the resolution was one of positive instructions, and would lead to a month's debate.

Mr. LANE thought the subject embraced in the resolution had been discussed enough.

Mr. TRUMBULL suggested that Mr. LANE had better introduce the resolution himself, instead of directing the Committee to report it.

The resolution was laid over for the present.

LANMAN'S DICTIONARY OF CONGRESS.

Mr. ANTHONY asked that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the resolution for the printing of the usual number of copies of LANMAN'S Dictionary of Congress.

Mr. GRIMES asked what was the usual number.

Mr. ANTHONY understood it was 1,500 copies.

Mr. SHERMAN asked how much the compiler received.

Mr. ANTHONY said one dollar a copy.

Mr. CONNESS was opposed to the appropriation of the public money for any such purpose. He spoke of the inaccuracies with which, he said, the book was filled.

Mr. RIDDLE said whatever might have been thought of the original publication of the book, he was in favor of issuing a correct edition of it now.

The resolution was adopted; yeas 22, nays 15.

THE DIMINUTION OF UNITED STATES NOTES.

Mr. SHERMAN introduced a joint resolution that the aggregate outstanding United States notes, not bearing interest, and including fractional currency, shall not be diminished below four hundred and twenty millions; that all surplus in the Treasury exceeding forty millions in coin and forty millions in currency shall be promptly applied to the payment of accruing indebtedness, and to the purchase or payment of the interest-bearing debt of the United States; but the amount of interest-bearing legal-tender notes shall not be diminished by payment or conversion at a rate exceeding five millions per month.

The second section provides that this joint resolution shall remain in force one year after its passage.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Finance.

COLORADO.

The bill for the admission of Colorado was then taken up. The question pending was upon the following amendment, offered by Mr. SUMNER:

Provided, That this act shall not take effect except with the fundamental condition that within the State there shall be no denial of the elective franchise or any other right on account of color or race; and all persons shall be equal before the law; and the inhabitants of the territory shall, by a majority of the voters, at a meeting publicly convened by the Governor of the Territory, declare their assent to this fundamental condition, and the Governor shall transmit to the President of the United States an authentic statement of such assent, whenever the same shall be given, upon the receipt whereof he shall by proclamation announce the fact; whereupon, without any further proceeding in Congress, this act shall take effect.

Mr. POMEROY spoke briefly in favor of the admission of Colorado.

Mr. SAULSBURY could not vote for the admission of a State with such a small population. He was very glad to see that when the question of negro suffrage was presented, out of a very little over five thousand voters, only four hundred and seventy-six were lunatics enough to be in favor of it.

Mr. GRIMES opposed the bill. He spoke of the burdens of taxation which a State Government would impose upon the people of Colorado. Those who were friends of the people would vote against the proposition to impose this additional burden. If he voted for the admission of Colorado to-day he would have to vote for the admission of Nebraska to-morrow, and of Montana to-morrow. He understood that Gen. MEAGHER was organizing a State Government in Montana, and so of other territories. He believed the old requirement that, before a State could be admitted her population should be equal to that required to elect a member of the House of Representatives, ought to be enforced.

Mr. HENDRICKS wished to say a word for the sake of disclaiming any intention of voting against the bill from the same motives that induced Mr. SUMNER to oppose it. He would not vote against the admission of a State because of the adoption of negro suffrage, nor because of its rejection. He was opposed to the admission of Colorado because he did not believe the fifteen thousand people of Colorado should be entitled to the same right in the Senate as the thirteen hundred thousand people of Indiana. He then spoke of the irregularity and want of uniformity of the proceedings attending the election of delegates to the State Convention as detailed in debate yesterday, showing there was but one hundred and fifty-five majority in favor of the State Government.

Mr. LANE, of Kansas, said the arguments of Mr. HENDRICKS against the admission of Colorado were the same as urged against the admission of Kansas by Mr. HUNTER, of Virginia, and other Southern men. California and Florida were admitted without any enumeration of population. Florida was forced into the Union by the same power, to offset the admission of the Free State of Iowa.

Mr. GRIMES said the population of California was over ninety-two thousand at the time of her admission. In the case of Florida, it was understood at the time of her admission that she had population enough to elect a member of the House. Had he been here when Kansas was admitted, he might have voted for it without reference to population, for the sake of settling the Slavery agitation. There was no such reason to govern his vote now in the case of Colorado.

Mr. LANE, resuming the floor, said he would vote for the admission of Colorado because the people had signified their willingness to bear the responsibilities of a State Government. Colorado had as many people within her borders now as Kansas had when every Republican Senator voted for the admission of Kansas.

Mr. WADE said, though he reported the pending bill, he did so reluctantly, and he was not now in favor of it. When the enabling act was under consideration the Committee on Territories were informed that the people were flocking to Colorado as they did to California a few years ago, and that soon there would be a very large population there.

Mr. MCDOUGAL spoke of the limited knowledge there prevailed concerning the far West. The lands of the West were being developed more rapidly than Senators were aware of, and a Territory soon outgrows a Territorial Government and needed representation in Congress. He believed Colorado would be much better off as a State than as a Territory.

Mr. TRUMBULL said, if this were a new question, he might be opposed to the admission of Colorado; but inducements had been held out to the people of Colorado. An enabling act had been passed, and the people of Colorado had been invited to form a State Government.

Mr. FESSENDEN said the people of Colorado had voted against the formation of a State Government under the enabling act; subsequently they voted for admission as a State.

Mr. TRUMBULL mentioned that the enabling act was still in force, notwithstanding the refusal of the people to adopt a State Government on one occasion. The enabling act had not been repealed. As to the question of population, he said it was bad faith to reject Colorado on that ground, because the population was now as great as when the enabling act was formed. He held that all the requirements of the enabling act had been complied with.

Mr. SUMNER said the population of Colorado had decreased since 1861. In 1861 there were 10,000 and upward of voters, in 1865 there were less than 6,000.

Mr. DOOLITTLE said he voted for the enabling act in the belief that there were at that time from 40,000 to 50,000 people, and that by the time of the formation of the State government there would be population enough to entitle them to a representative in Congress. It would appear, however, that there were but 25,000 people in the Territory when the enabling act was passed, and the population had since been decreasing. These facts forced themselves upon his mind the belief that it was his duty to vote against the admission of Colorado. It had been held that Congress was bound by the enabling act. He did not think so; because the people had once refused to adopt a State government under that act.

Mr. CRAGIN believed Congress, by the enabling act, was bound to receive Colorado. There was no discussion about population or any irregularity in the Committee on Territories when this bill was before it. He was fully persuaded there was a population of forty thousand in the Territory. He saw no reason now for not admitting the State that did not exist at the time of the passage of the enabling act.

Mr. RAMSEY maintained the failure of Congress to repeal the enabling act was a standing invitation to them to form a State Government. Beside, the State of Colorado was a far distant State, and such a large population ought not to be demanded as of Territories nearer to us.

Mr. GRIMES said the enabling act was not repealed because it expired by its own limitations the moment the people had refused to adopt a State Constitution, as they did in the first instance. The question was whether the Senate was prepared to sanction a rotten borough system which would give to twelve or fifteen thousand people an equal power with New-York in the Senate.

Mr. CONNESS spoke against the admission of Colorado, believing it to be contrary to good policy.

Mr. SUMNER withdrew his amendment, and a vote was ordered on the bill, which merely recognizes Colorado as one of the States of the Union.

The yeas and nays were demanded on the motion to order a third reading of the bill, and the Senate refused so to do by the following vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Chandler, Cragin, Kirkwood, Lane of Indiana, Lane of Kansas, McDougal, Nesmith, Norton, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Stewart, Trumbull, Williams—14.

NAYS—Messrs. Buckalew, Conness, Creswell, Davis, Doolittle, Fessenden, Foster, Grimes, Guthrie, Harris, Hendricks, Morgan, Morrill, Poland, Riddle, Sprague, Stockton, Sumner, Van Winkle, Wade, Wilson—21.

So the bill failed.

THE REGULAR ARMY BILL.

The Regular Army Bill was made the special order for to-morrow at 1 o'clock, and the Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SELECT COMMITTEE ON THE CIVIL SERVICE.

The Speaker announced the following Select Committee on the Civil Service of the United States, and to promote its efficiency: Messrs. Jencks, Shellabarger, Hogan, Baker, Myers, McKee and James M. Humphrey.

VACANCY FILLED.

The Speaker also announced the appointment of Mr. HARRIS to fill a vacancy on the Committee of Private Land Claims.

RELIEF.

Mr. COFFROTH offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to inquire into the expediency of reporting by bill or otherwise, for the relief of such persons as were charged and who paid commutation money, or put in substitutes a second time.

SAVINGS BANKS.

On motion of Mr. PHELPS, the Committee of Ways and Means was instructed to inquire into the expediency of so amending the Internal Revenue Law, as to remit the monthly duty on average deposits of Savings Banks.

A MILITARY AND NAVAL ASYLUM.

Mr. SCHENCK asked leave to report back from the Military Committee a substitute for the Senate bill, amendatory of the act incorporating a Military and Naval Asylum for the relief of totally disabled officers and men of the volunteer forces of the United States. He explained that the act of last Congress provided for one hundred corporators, scattered all over the country; that no quorum could ever be got together; that the Senate had this session passed an act to remedy the evil, but had included in it the provision for the same number of corporators, and that the substitute which the Military Committee desired to report provided for only twelve members, including the President, the Chief-Justice and Gen. GRANT, the other nine to be appointed by joint resolution of Congress somewhat after the style of the Smithsonian Institute. Unanimous consent was given, and the substitute was agreed to, and the bill as amended was passed.

BONDED GOODS.

Mr. MORRILL, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported back the Senate amendment to the bill to extend the time for the withdrawal of goods for consumption rom public stores and bonded warehouses. The amendment, which was to substitute "May" for "April," was concurred in.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back, with amendments, the bill to protect all persons in the United States in their civil rights, and to funish the means of their vindication. The first amendment was to strike out the words, "and there shall be no discrimination in civil rights," &c., so that the first section shall read: "That all persons born in the United States, and not subject to any foreign power, excluding Indians not taxed, are hereby declared to be citizens of the United States, without distinction of color. But the inhabitants of every race and color, without regard to any previous condition of slavery or involuntary servitude, except as a punishment of crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall have the same right to make and enforce contracts, to sue, be parties to suits, give evidence, and to inherit, purchase, lease, sell, hold and convey real and personal property, and to have the full and equal benefit of all laws and proceedings for the security of person and property, and shall be subject to like punishment, pains and penalties, and to none other, any law, statute, ordinance, regulation or custom to the contrary notwithstanding."

The amendment was agreed to.

Some other amendments of an unimportant character were also reported and agreed to.

The Committee also reported the following as an additional section:

"That on all questions of law arising in any case under the provisions of this act, a final appeal shall be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States."

The amendment was agreed to.

Messrs. CONKLING, FARNSWORTH, HILL and other members suggested that the House should not be called to vote on the bill until the bill as amended was printed.

Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, explained that the changes made in the printed bill were simple and easily understood. He demanded the previous question on the passage of the bill.

The previous question was seconded, and the House was brought to a direct vote on the passage of the bill. The bill was passed by a vote of 109 to 38.

The vote on the passage of the bill was as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Allison, Ames, Anderson, Ashley of Ohio, Baker, Baldwin, Banks, Baxter, Beaman, Bidwell, Blaine, Blood, Boutwell, Broomall, Bromwell, Buckland, Bundy, Clark of Kansas, Cobb, Conkling, Cook, Cullom, Darling, Davis, Dawes, Delano, Deming, Dixon, Donnelly, Driggs, Durant, Elliot, Farnsworth, Farquhar, Ferry, Garfield, Grinnell, Harding of Illinois, Hart, Hayes, Higby, Hill, Holmes, Hooper, Hubbard of Iowa, Hubbard of West Virginia, Hubbard, Jr., of New-York, Hubbard of Connecticut, Hulburd, James Humphrey, Ingersoll, Jenckes, Julian, Kelley, Kelso, Ketcham, Kuykendall, Laflin, Lawrence of Pennsylvania, Lawrence of Ohio, Loan, Longyear, Lynch, Marston, Marvin, McClurg, McRuer, Mercur, Miller, Moorhead, Morrill, Morris, Moulton, Myers, Newell, O'Neill, Orth, Paine, Perham, Pike, Plants, Price, Sawyer, Schenck, Scofield, Shellabarger, Sloan, Spalding, Starr, Stevens, Thayer, Francis Thomas, John L. Thomas, Jr., Trowbridge, Upson, Van Aernam, Van Horn of New-York, Ward, Warner, Washburne of Illinois, Washburn of Massachusetts, Welker, Wentworth, Whaley, Williams, Wilson of Iowa, Wilson of Pennsylvania, Windom, Woodbridge.

NAYS.—Ancona, Bergen, Bingham, Boyer, Brooks, Coffroth, Dawson, Denison, Glossbrenner, Goodyear, Grider, Harding, of Ky.; Harris, Hogan, Hubbell, of N. Y.; Jones, Kerr, Latham, Leblond, Marshall, McCullough, Nicholson, Philips, Radford, Randall, of Penn.; Randall, of Ky.; Ritter, Rogers, Ross, Rosseau, Shanklin, Sitgreaves, Smith, Tabor, Taylor, Thornton, Trimble, Winfield.

Mr. LE BLOND proposed that the title should be amended so as to make it read: "A bill to abrogate the rights and break down the judicial system of the several States, to admit negroes to sit upon juries, &c." [Calls to order.]

SALARIES OF JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Mr. WOODBRIDGE, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back a bill regulating the salaries of the Judges of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. Recommitted and ordered to be printed.

THE HABEAS CORPUS ACT.

Mr. LAWRENCE, of Ohio, also reported back from the same Committee a bill to amend an act relating to the Habeas Corpus, &c., its place having been supplied by another bill. Laid on the table.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

Mr. LAWRENCE also reported back, with sundry amendments, a joint resolution proposing amendments to the Constitution of the United States. Two amendments, which were verbal, were agreed to; the third amendment changing the essential features of the resolution. The entire bill with amendments was ordered to be printed and recommitted.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT AT ERIE, PA.

Mr. WILLIAMS, from the same Committee, reported bill directing a District Court to be held at the City of Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. The bill was passed.

THE HABEAS CORPUS ACT.

Mr. COOK, from the same committee, reported back, with a substitute, a bill to amend an act relating to the habeas corpus, and regulating judicial proceedings in certain cases. Approved March 3, 1865.

Pending the consideration of this bill, the morning hour expired, and the bill went over until the next morning hour.

THE RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE.

Mr. LAFLIN, from the Committee on Printing, reported back a resolution for printing 25,000 extra copies each of the report of and testimony taken by the Joint Select Committee on Reconstruction, without covers, for the use of the House. He added that his colleague on the Committee (Mr. LATHAM) agreed to the report being made, but dissented from the resolution.

Mr. CONKLING desired to make a remark. He had seen in the newspapers an assertion that there was, on the part of the Reconstruction Committee, or some of its sub-divisions, an intention to suppress some of the evidence; that some of it had been presented and ordered to be printed, while the other evidence in the possession of the committee was not presented. This showed a disposition on the part of the committee to select certain evidence to be published and to withhold the rest. The reason of it was simply this. Senator HOWARD, who is at the head of one of the subdivisions of the Committee, had been absent for some time on account of a domestic bereavement, and it was thought by his colleagues on the Committee that, as a matter of simple courtesy, the testimony taken before him should not be reported in his absence.

Mr. GRIDER asked whether any sub-committee had reported to the general Committee, except in relation to Tennessee.

Mr. CONKLING said that a resolution had been adopted by the general Committtee that the evidence should be brought forward as rapidly as might be to be printed. He believed the manual operation was for each sub-committee to bring in its testimony by bundles and hand them over the whole of it to be printed, to the end that Congress and the country might have it all at the earliest possible moment.

Mr. GRIDER—Did not the general Committee determine not to present any testimony except such as was reported to it by a sub-committee?

Mr. CONKLING—No such thing ever happened.

Mr. STEVENS protested that all this colloquy about what took place in committee was out of order.

The Speaker decided that it was.

Mr. LE BLOND desired to know what was the particular object of publishing the testimony.

Mr. LAFLIN replied that it was for the information of the public and the House. The importance of the subject, the interest felt in it, and the high character of the testimony were sufficient reasons for its publication.

Mr. LE BLOND wanted to know on what point it was important?

Mr. LAFLIN insisted on the previous question, which he had moved.

Mr. LE BLOND demanded the yeas and nays, and the vote being taken, the resolution was adopted. Yeas, 109; nays, 50.

THE ROLLS OF HONOR.

On motion of Mr. JENCKES, the Committee on Printing was instructed to inquire into the expediency of printing 5,000 copies of the rolls of honor and other lists of soldiers buried in national cemeteries and the battle-field, now being published under the direction of the Quartermaster-General.

A REFORM SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

Mr. BALDWIN, by unanimous consent, introduced a bill to establish, in the District of Columbia, a reform school for boys. Read twice and referred to Committee for District of Columbia.

EQUALIZATION OF BOUNTIES.

Mr. WINDOM presented the petition of W. S. MCEWEN and twenty other soldiers of Minnesota asking for the equalization of soldiers' bounties. This was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

THE NATIONAL FORTIFICATIONS.

The House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, in the chair, and resumed consideration of the Fortification Appropriation Bill, the pending question being on the amendment of Mr. FARNSWORTH, to reduce the appropriation of Fort Wayne from $80,000 to $75,000.

The tellers resumed their place, and the amendment was rejected.

The appropriation for Fort Washington on the Potomac was reduced from $50,000 to $20,000.

An appropriation of $80,000 was inserted for Fort Jefferson Garden, Tortugas.

The appropriation for the fort on Ship Island, Mississippi coast, was, on amendments offered by Messrs. DEMING and BLAINE, reduced from $75,000 to $10,000.

An appropriation of $50,000 was inserted, on motion of Mr. SCHENCK, for Fort Clinton, Amelia Island, Ga.

An amendment by Mr. SCHENCK, and supported by Mr. HIGBY, appropriating $75,000 for the fort at Lyme Point, Cal., where there is now only an earth battery, was adopted.

The appropriation for the survey of the Northern and Western lakes, including Lake Superior, was reduced from $150,000 to $50,000, the former figure being a mistake.

The Committee rose.

The amendments were concurred in and the bill was passed.

THE PARIS EXPOSITION.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. WILSON, (of Iowa,) in the chair, and took up the joint resolution to provide for the expenses attending the exhibition of the products of industry of the United States at the Exposition at Paris, in 1867.

Mr. WASHBURNE (of Illinois) moved to lay the bill aside and take up one of the general appropriation bills.

Mr. BANKS—I hope not. It is necessary this question shall be settled.

The motion was not agreed to.

The bill being read by sections for amendments, Mr. BANKS reported an amendment to the first clause as follows:

To provide necessary furniture and fixtures for the proper exhition of articles and products of industry of the United States, according to the plan of the Imperial Commissioner, in that part of the building exclusively assigned to the use of the United States, forty-eight thousand dollars.

Mr. BANKS explained the objects of the amendment of the joint resolution. The Government of the United States, he said, had never made any appropriation for a purpose of this kind, nor until the Exhibition of 1867 was proposed had any Government taken the initiative in industrial exhibitions. In all ages of the world and among all nations, they had been popular institutions, not governmental institutions. The means of appealing to government or to public opinion had been the exhibition by the people of the fruits of their industry. Thus in our own country, in Hungary, in Poland, in Greece, wherever the common people had desired to impress on Governments the idea of their importance, they had done so. It was not until 1851 that industrial exhibitions engaged the attention of all nations. That exhibition was established on a guarantee made by individual citizens of England that the Government should be secured against any loss in the encouragement which it should give to it. The Paris Exposition of 1855 and the London Exhibition of 1862, and the Hamburg Exhibition of 1863, proceeded on that idea. But the great man who now directed the affairs of France had, for the first time in the history of the world, conceived the idea that the Government of the Empire and the Governments of other nations were interested in presenting the productions of the industry of their people. The Emperor of France had undertaken to appropriate twenty millions of francs for the payment of the expenses to be incurred in the exhibition of French industry. Belgium had appropriated one hundred and twenty thousand dollars. Every nation of the earth would make appropriations for the same purpose. It was a Governmental institution, in which the Governments alone were to be represented. If the United States desired to be represented, it must be through its Government and not as heretofore through individuals. For that reason the Committee on Foreign Affairs reported this bill. Unless the Government took the initiative, the people of the United States would have no representation there. It was therefore important that the joint resolution should be considered in that regard. On the 15th day of January last, a joint resolution which had passed both Houses was approved by the President, accepting the invitation of the Emperor of France to take part in the Exposition as a Government. The building to be erected would cover thirty-six acres in the Champs de Mars. Furniture and fixtures would be necessary, and the amendment he offered was to cover the outlay for that purpose. It was the unanimous opinion of the Committee of Foreign Affairs that the acceptance of the invitation by our Government rendered it incumbent on Congress to make this appropriation. The Committee had considered the question long and carefully, and in every point, before agreeing to recommend the appropriation of the one hundred thousand dollars asked for. The part of the building to be assigned to American exhibitors was thirty thousand square feet: twenty thousand for passage ways and ten thousand for the exhibition of products. The United States stood in that respect eighth on the list of nations. Every State in the Union having any industry had applied for space at the Exhibition, including the State of Illinois, which had applied for more than the entire space assigned to the United States. A larger space would have been assigned, but that no representative of our Government, either here or in France, could specify how much would be required or used. The plan of the Exposition had been drawn up, and there had never been a clearer or better-defined classification than it contained. All the products of industry were grouped in ten leading groups and divided into ninety-five classes. The groups were: 1, works of art; 2, materials and application of the liberal arts; 3, furniture and other household articles; 4, clothing, including cloths and other wearing apparel; 5, mining, and the rough and unwrought products of mining; 6, instruments and products of mechanical arts; 7, food, fresh and preserved in its several states; 8, live agricultural products and specimens; 9, natural horticultural productions and specimens; 10, objects specially exhibited for the purpose of improving the physical and moral condition of the people of the earth. These ten, Mr. BANKS said, embraced all the pursuits of man, all the products of his industry, all habits of life, and all his relations to his past, present and progressive civilization. It was of vast importance that this world's exhibition should be so far studied by the American people that they might be able to appropriate its advantages. We had eminent scientific men in every part of the country, who were capable, not only of illustrating our own relations to the industry and material products of the earth, but of combining in a brief and philosophical view the results of their investigations and of imparting that information and instructing our people in all the different pursuits, the results of which might be exhibited. In this connection he mentioned Professor AGASSIZ as one whose discoveries in natural science in South America would electrify the world, and as having mentioned to him his belief that in a few years the children of noble families in Europe would be sent to the universities of this country to be educated. The Middle States would be able to send some one who understood well what was necessary for the development of their material wealth. The valley of the Mississippi, which is still unknown to us, and which is capable of supporting five hundred or a thousand millions of people, and which would yield every known mineral product, would be able to present a man who understands its resources and can represent its power, and would be able in return to make known to the people of that valley the improvement in industry elsewhere. It was important, too, that the great mineral and commercial region of the Pacific coast should send some man of science, skill and ability to present to the people of the Old World the capacity of that section of the country, and bring back a knowledge of improvements in industrial pursuits. Thus in these ten groups we should be able to represent all our material wealth, present and prospective. More than that, it was in our power to Tuesday, March 13—P. M.

There was an increased demand for United States Stocks and Treasury paper to-day at advancing rates, owing in part to the diversion of a large amount of cash balances into these securities in preference to loans at call at 5@6 ₩ cent., or merchant paper at 7@8 ₩ cent. The First Series of 7.30 ₩ cents brought par and interest by private sale, and 99⅞ bid at the Stock Board this afternoon. The Seconds and Thirds, 99⅝ ₩ cent., and the 5-20s of all classes were 103⅜@103½ ₩ cent. The present advance is the more significant of the increasing favor shown to the Public Funds over all other money investments, because they go up as Gold goes down. The Gold interest on 5-20s may not be so much in Currency as when Gold itself was higher, but both interest and principal are held to be substantially more valuable and undoubted as the value of the Currency appreciates.

The price of Gold, which fell to 129⅜ at a late hour yesterday, reopened at 129⅝, went down to 129⅝, and subsequently rallied to 130⅛@⅜ ₩ cent.; finally closing, with regular 'Change hours, about 130 ₩ cent. The Exchanges on London for the Boston steamer were made at 108⅜@108½ ₩ cent. for standard Bankers and 108@108¼ for Southern and California Bank bills with City indorsement. The prompt arrival of the Aspinwall steamer last night with $1,425,553, California Bullion, added to the weakness of both Gold and Exchange. The Treasury Office received $500,000 of this shipment by transfer of San Francisco Customs. The direct exports of Produce from New-York the present week are much less in value than on the large return of last Tuesday. The value is $3,669,361, including 7,195 bales of Cotton for Liverpool. The Customs in Gold this week promise to be quite large, full half a million per day.

On the Stock Exchange the Railway speculation is becoming more decidedly bullish, although the opposing interest is large and persistent, backed by successful profits on the earlier bearish operations of the season; and there is a further advance noted on most of the New-York and Western Roads, and also on Reading. There is less doing in Erie than last week, but more in Michigan Southern, and both stocks are strongly supported. The defeat in Congress last night of the Canadian Reciprocity Bill adds to the advantages of the Michigan Southern, as a strictly American line in all its connections, and from the same cause there was some disposition manifested to sell Michigan Southern, whose relations with the Canada roads have been quite intimate for ten years past, though not necessarily dependent upon them. The Border State Stocks were again weak. The decline since last week is 7 ₩ cent. on Missouris, and about the same on Tennessees. They were steadier at the close of business this afternoon, with buyers of Missouris at 72 ₩ cent. Illinois Central Shares have advanced 3 ₩ cent.

At 5.30 P. M. on Broad-street, the quotations on the speculative list closed about as follows:

The buyers of United States 7.30 ₩ cent. Treasury Bonds should bear in mind the reserved option of the Government on the Third Series of July 15, 1865, to pay the interest at the rate of 6 per cent. in Gold, in place of 7.30 ₩ cent. in Currency. The Second and First Series have no such option attached. We remind parties interested as holders or buyers, of the distinction, in view of the possibility that even the next 15th July interest on the Third Series may be paid at the rate of 6 ₩ cent., should Gold continue to decline to 122@120 ₩ cent. by that time.

All classes of shareholders in the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien Company are called to meet to-morrow, March 14, at the office in Exchange-place, to confer on the proposed extension of the McGregor Western Road, east of the Mississippi River. It is believed the meeting will be well attended, and all interests will cooperate in some good plan, not only to extend the Western connection of the Road, but to place the Preferred and Common Stockholders on a mutually satisfactory footing as to future Dividends.

The fall in Tennessee 6 ₩ cent. Bonds from 92 last week to 84 ₩ cent. to-day is ascribed to the disruption of the Legislature, which passed the recent Funding Bill. A new election has been ordered by the Governor to fill the vacancies of the members who suddenly resigned, after first attempting to break up the House of Representatives by absenting themselves from their seats. But the Funding Bill was made a law before this occurrence, and the new Bonds are now being prepared to substitute for the overdue Coupons in June, and we have no reason, beyond a vague rumor that the law does not become operative until 40 days after the final adjournment of the Legislature, to doubt that the Funding arrangement will be carried out, as stated in the recent letter of Mr. Fletcher, the Secretary of State, which we have copied in this column. By the former (ante-war) Constitution of Tennessee, new laws became operative on their passage through both Houses. The Governor has no Veto power, and we are not aware that the new Constitution postpones the validity and practical operation of the Acts of the Legislature for 40 days after the adjournment. That there is an unpleasant state of things between the majority and minority of that body on questions wholly foreign to the Funding Act, there is no question, but we feel quite confident that this particular Act will be carried out in good faith. The new bonds for 30 ₩ cent. of interest arrearages will be ready by the time stated in Mr. Fletcher's letter.

The day's business at the office of the Assistant Treasurer of the United States was as follows: Receipts, $1,821,117 90; for Customs, $552,000; Coin Certificates, $616,000; on account of Loan, $2,000. Payments, $805,509 72. Balance, $90,497,076 36.

The Gift Enterprise Swindles.

The article published a few days ago in the Times, exposing the manner in which the "gift enterprise" swindles are conducted, has, we are assured, been the means of preventing many persons from trusting their money to the rogues who manipulate these "enterprises." It appears, however, that many of the "enterprise" firms in this City have agents in other States. The New-Haven Journal & Courier says:

"Briggs, Taylor & Co., Box No. 420, Westville," will not receive any more letters at present. One of the many dodges by which innocent and ignorant people are relieved of their surplus cash, is thus exposed. It seems that about a month ago a person called at the Post-office at Westville and stated that "Briggs, Taylor & Co." would rather get their letters there than at the city office, and desired a box. As the boxes were all taken, he proposed to bring a tin box, labeled "No. 420," into which the Postmaster could put their letters. The worthy Postmaster not objecting, the box was shortly after left at the office. But before long a letter arrived, addressed to the Postmaster himself, and inclosing a lottery circular inviting certain pecuniary investments which were to be sent to "Briggs, Taylor & Co., Westville, Conn. The letter desired some light on the subject. Thereupon the Postmaster, understanding the meaning of "Box 420," took steps which resulted in the arrest of the person who called for the letters. Upon examination at the Police Court, he showed that he was acting merely as the messenger for other parties in New-York, at present unknown, who are supposed to represent the firm of "Briggs, Taylor & Co.," but who have not yet thought proper to justify themselves at the Police office. So that the agent escapes; but the arrest will serve a good purpose in breaking up one of many such plots for the ignorant and credulous. The circulars sent out by this "firm" were mostly sent to the West.

When will people learn that men who send letters all over the country, proposing to give away something for nothing, are not the very best men in the world to send money to? A long and interesting article might be written upon the numerous and multiform swindles, at which the [illegible] recently introduced by Senator Dixon [illegible]. The firm of "Briggs, Taylor & Co." is but one of a very large number now doing a similar business.

John Lindsey, a young fellow from New-York, was tried for setting up a lottery in Westville. There was no proof against him, except the possession of letters from a firm in New-York who were lottery agents. He was therefore discharged.

The Board of Aldermen.

The following documents were received too late to be inserted in yesterday's issue of the Times in connection with the proceedings of the Board of Aldermen, of which they were a part:

Whereas, In the present crisis in the affairs of our country, when the conservative, enlightened, and Christian policy of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, is brought violently in conflict with the vindictive, revolutionary, and destructive policy, as indicated by the acts of the present Congress, it is eminently fitting and proper that the people of this, the most important City on the American continent, should be heard, speaking through their direct representatives in the Municipal Government, and that the views, aspirations and opinions entertained by the President and contained in his message vetoing the "Freedmen's Bureau Bill," being strictly in accord with those entertained by them, should at once, in the most impressive and energetic manner, receive their clear and unequivocal ratification and indorsement; and,

Whereas, The action of President Johnson, in interposing to save the defenceless and despairing people of the Southern States (lately in rebellion against the Government, but who are now repentant, and solicitous of returning to their allegiance,) from the dreaded results of the vindictiveness of the dominant faction in the present Congress, who were seemingly determined to change the relative positions of the freedmen and their late masters, must commend itself to every liberal-minded, conservative citizen of the Republic, and especially so to the people of this city; be it, therefore,

Resolved, That the people of the City of New-York, speaking through their representatives in the Common Council, do hereby unqualifiedly ratify and indorse the act of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, in vetoing the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, that obnoxious and portentous emanation of the mad, fanatical spirit of malevolence and cruelty so characteristic of the violent and malignant spirit of vengeance which seems to actuate and govern the thoughts, words and actions of the sectional party now unhappily dominant in our national councils, in legislating for the lately rebellious, but now happily peaceable and repentant people of the Southern States; and we beg to be permitted to assure him that in the eminently wise and patriotic national measures he has inaugurated or indicated in his speeches and in his messages to Congress, tending to a full restoration of those States to their former status in this Union of States, he has the most fervent and sincere wishes of nearly all classes of our citizens for their final and triumphant success; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolution be appropriately engrossed, duly authenticated by the Common Council, and transmitted to His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States.

VETO MESSAGE.

Mayor's Office, New-York, March 12, 1866.
To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, the resolution adopted by your Board February twenty-six, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and concurred in by the Board of Councilmen, March one, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, which is as follows:

"Resolved, That the actual opening of Ninetieth-street, from Fifth-avenue to the East River, and from the Eighth-avenue to the Hudson River, date from the approval of this resolution by His Honor the Mayor."

My reasons are, that I learn on inquiry of the Corporation Counsel, that Ninetieth-street, so called, between the Fourth and Fifth avenues, has never been opened. It formed part of "Observatory-place;" Observatory-place was closed and discontinued by an act of the Legislature, passed March 15, 1865. The same act directed that Ninetieth-street should be continued through Observatory-place, from the west side of the Fourth to the east side of Fifth avenue; but it also expressly declared that nothing in the act contained should divest the title of the owners of the fee in the extended street.

The Commissioners' report on opening of Ninetieth-street, from Third-avenue to East River, and from Eighth-avenue to Hudson River, has been confirmed by the Supreme Court, and Ninetieth-street, between Third and Fourth avenues, has been ceded to the Corporation; but no proceedings have been taken, as far as I can ascertain, to divest the title of the owner of the fee to the portion lying between Fourth and Fifth avenues.

JOHN T. HOFFMAN, Mayor.

Masonic News.—At the regular communication of New-York Lodge, No. 330, F. and A. M., on Tuesday evening last, Worshiptul Brother James B. Elsey, with a few appropriate remarks, presented to W. Brother Orestes P. Quintard, Past Master, an elegantly engrossed and framed copy of resolutions, which were adopted by the lodge at the first communication in January. Worshipful Bro. Quintard responded in feeling terms, thanking the lodge for their kindness. Wor. Bro. Elsey then addressed W. Bro. Quintard in behalf of the brethren of the lodge, and concluded by presenting him with a gold watch and chain, as an additional mark of their regard and esteem. This was an elegant affair—of the celebrated maker Nardin—heavily cased with rich though very chaste ornamentation, bearing on the cap the following inscription:

A token of regard and esteem from the Brethren of
New-York Lodge No. 330, F. and A. M., to
Wor. Bro. Orestes P. Quintard,
Past Master.
New-York, March 6, A. L. 5866.
A. D. 1866.

The watch and chain were inclosed in a rich paper mache and pearl jewel box.

Wor Bro. Quintard was so overcome that all he could say was, "Thank you, brethren—God bless you."

The brethren present were then invited to remain until the close of the meeting and partake of refreshments. At the close the brethren were conducted to the Buck's Head Hotel, where a bountiful collation was served, to which ample justice was done, the brethren dispersing at about 2 o'clock.

Picture Sale.—A large sale of oil-paintings, the production of modern European artists, will take place at the Studio Building, No. 15 Tenth-street, near Sixth-avenue, on the evenings of Thursday and Friday next, Messrs. Leeds & Miner officiating as auctioneers. The catalogue comprises the names of Meissonier, A. Bonheur, Gérome, Ed. Frere, Scheffer, Verbockhoven, Noel and Stanfield. The pictures are now on exhibition.

Proceedings in Reference to the Death of Edwin Burr, Esq.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—SOUTHERN DISTRICT—MARCH 13.

Judge Betts and Judge Benedict took their seats upon the bench at the opening of Court, and after the return of process and some other formal business, Mr. G. H. Owen rose and said: "If the Court please, as it has pleased God to remove from us by death our friend, Edwin Burr, Esq., and as it is desired to take some brief action on the part of the Bar in reference to it, I now move that the Court adjourn."

Mr. Van Santvoord seconded the motion, saying that he was authorized to request the Judges to remain and preside at the meeting of the Bar.

The Court accordingly adjourned, and on motion of Mr. Owen, Judge Betts and Judge Benedict were chosen to preside over the meeting of the Bar.

Mr. Van Santvoord said: "If it please your Honors, I do not propose to make any extended remarks as to the character and life of our departed friend. To those who were acquainted with him through their practice as members of the Bar of this Court, the daily beauty of his life requires no further praise. He was universally esteemed among us as a lawyer of skill and integrity, a fair-minded man and a good citizen. I offer as a small tribute to the memory of Mr. Burr, and as a fitting memorial of his excellence, the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this meeting express deep regret for the decease of our associate, Edwin Burr, Esq., a member of the bar for [illegible]; desires also to record the high estimation in which he was held, as well by his fellow-citizens as by the members of the profession and by the Courts, for his learning and ability, his personal [illegible] and his moral worth.

Resolved, That as a testimony of our respect for the memory of the deceased, we will attend his funeral.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be signed by the officers of this meeting and sent to the family of the deceased.

Judge Betts remarked: It is meet and proper that I should say that I have been acquainted with Mr. Burr ever since I have presided over this Court. During that period his activity and diligence have been known to all of us, and all will acknowledge that he was a man of the greatest integrity, and that the token of respect which is offered in these resolutions is one eminently appropriate.

Judge Benedict said: I had the privilege of knowing Mr. Burr for many years. I commenced the study of the law in his office, soon became managing clerk, and was afterward for many years his partner, and thus had opportunities for a very intimate acquaintance with him, and I entirely concur with what has been said as to his character. As an able lawyer of remarkably good judgment in that particular branch of the profession to which he more especially devoted himself, the law of admiralty; as an honest man; a man of a remarkably fine sense of honor, it will be difficult to find his superior. I heartily concur with the members of the Bar in their expressions of regret at his decease.

Mr. Courtney, the Assistant District-Attorney, said: As one of the younger members of the bar I desire to express my concurrence with the sentiments contained in the remarks of your Honor and in the resolutions that have been offered. I had but little acquaintance with Mr. Burr, but the little that I had been brought in contact with him had satisfied me that in the branch of the law which he had made more especially his own, he was a very able man, and that he was a man of integrity whose word was as good as his written stipulation, and could always be relied upon. He was one of the landmarks in this Court. His practice here dates back to a very early day. Your Honor has had opportunity to witness his life through this long period, during which he was almost daily before you; that which you have said of him is spoken by one who has had better opportunities of judging of his integrity than any other man.

The older members of the Bar are passing rapidly away from us. I trust that we, the younger men who are to take their places, may emulate their virtues and follow in the footsteps of those who have gone before us. With these remarks I heartily second the resolutions that have been proposed.

The resolutions were then adopted and the meeting adjourned.

Before Commissioner Osborn.

Commissioner Osborn, yesterday, decided to hold Barney Bertram, a cattle broker, on a charge of having made to the Assessor of the Ninth District a false and fraudulent return of the amount of his sales from 1st of May, 1864, to the 1st of May, 1865. The evidence in the case showed that upon being notified by the Assessor to make a return of his sales, Mr. Bertram returned them at $260,000, whereas the Inspector of Internal Revenue, on an examination of defendant's book, showed that the return should have been $314,777 50. The Commissioner decides against the counsel for defendant, and says that under section 11 of the Internal Revenue Law, the Assessor has the right to assess the tax or license on the sales for the preceding year.

Court of General Sessions.

Before Judge Russel.

Thomas McGlynn, at 8 o'clock on the night of the 24th of February, by the aid of an oyster-knife and an iron ice-pick, broke into the cellar of the tobacco manufactory and cigar-store of Benjamin Ash, No. 91 Avenue D, and attempted to take away leaf-tobacco of the value of $600. He pleaded guilty of an attempt at burglary in the third degree, and was remanded for sentence.

Christian Miller, a German, broke into the house and store of Mrs. Catharine Nestle, No. 157 Attorney-street, on the morning of the 21st of February, by taking a pane of glass from the basement window, and unfastening the window. He was caught in the store, having in his possession a ham, a pair of pantaloons, and a bed-tick, all of the value of $18. He pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to the State Prison for three years and six months.

Adolph Klewcher, a young sailor of 17 Summers, on the 7th inst. took from Heinrich Christopher, of the ship Fernandina, several articles, of the value of $28. He pleaded guilty of petit larceny, and was remanded for sentence.

Court of Special Sessions.

Before Justices Kelly and Dowling.

A HOUSE THIEF CONVICTED.

George Wilson, aged 22, was charged with the larceny of a hat, the property of Rosanna Burns. According to the testimony, the prisoner, if he had been indicted and tried by a jury for a burglary, would have been convicted. The witness, Burns, said she locked the door, and sat down to take a nap in the chair. The creaking sound of a foot walking through the house awakened her, and on starting up she saw the prisoner, who fled, and she pursued him into the street, when he was arrested by Officer Doran. On searching the prisoner they found a jimmy and about sixty skeleton keys on his person.

Guilty—Penitentiary six months and fined $50.

A CLOTHES DEALERS' DISPUTE.

Samuel Mitchell and Mark Greenburgh are clothing merchants, and rivals, in Greenwich-street; each claims that the other is constantly infringing on the frontage of his window. Time and again both have asked the authorities to have each an injunction served on the other, that Mitchell's pantaloons should not hang before Greenburgh's window, and vice versa. On Saturday last, Mitchell, as usual, was hanging his clothing on the sidewalk, and putting the goods considerably further out than usual, when he was asked why he was doing so. The only answer made by Mitchell was that if he talked much more about it he would blow his empty head off. The threat was followed up by an assault, and Greenburgh said he was pretty well whipped. He, however, showed no marks of violence. One witness for the defence swore the complainant was the assailant, and another witness said the man that said that was down at the Battery at the time. As usual in such cases, there was apparent perjury on one side or the other. Mitchell was fined $20.

FOUL PLAY.

Dennis, Thomas and Martin Flannagan, were dispossessed by their landlord, Patrick Rooney. After the warrant of ejectment had been served, Mr. Rooney met Martin in the hall who asked him if he was satisfied now that he had put them out. He then said "I'll have satisfaction out of you." He threw off his coat to fight, and while Rooney was engaged doing the same thing, he received the first blow. He did not give him time to put up his hands, Dennis then came up and assisted his brother, and Thomas in a second or two joined his brother. This assault cost the Flannagan family $40.

ACUTE YOUNGSTERS.

Michael Kennedy, John McBride, William Fitch and John Conroy, all boys, were charged with stealing a box of cigars, the property of John J. Blauvelt. There were three complaints made by different persons against the youngsters. All the evidence adduced on the first complaint, was that the prisoners were brought into Mr. Blauvelt's store with a box of cigars worth $14, and one of the boys said he stole it from witness, but when further examined the witness could not say the box was his, or swear that it had been stolen, or that he had lost any property. No property having been stolen, the accused were discharged, and the officers opened the gate to let them out, but while they were going out another complainant was walking up to the witness' stand. The officers immediately gave chase to the boys, and recaptured three, but the worst of the four outran the officer and escaped.

BURGLARS CONVICTED.

Manuel Rodrigue and Manuel Monoz, very well-dressed [illegible], were charged by Sergt. Ferris, of the Eighth Precinct, with having burglars' instruments in their possession in the night time. The thieves had in their possession a large assortment of picklocks of various patterns and styles, and of such scientific make that they could pick almost any lock. They had also a large brass key, of peculiar make, undoubtedly made to fit a peculiar lock, of which they had obtained an impression. In the pocket of one of them was the impression of a lock, and a strange sort of instrument that could be used either as a pair of compasses or as a screw-driver. They were also well supplied with matches. The Sergeant first saw them at the corner of Grand and Broadway, on the Fourteenth Ward side. There were three then in company, but one went up Broadway, and the prisoners crossed over to Lord & Taylor's, and stood there a short time, and fancying that they had been seen, they walked down to Mercer then turned to go to Broome, when they were arrested on suspicion. They were found guilty and sent to the Penitentiary for 6 months each, and fined $50.

A HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

George Murphy was charged with stealing a watch and chain, the property of Carl F. Schieck. Witness said he was going home on the evening of the robbery, when the prisoner came up and asked him what time it was. He took his watch out to look at the time, when the prisoner snatched it out of his hand and fled. He was pursued through Rutgers, up Clinton-street and into East Broadway, where he was caught. The watch was not recovered. Guilty—Penitentiary 4 months and fined $50.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Hibernian arrived at Portland last evening with one day's later news from Europe. The rumor of Earl RUSSELL's resignation, circulated by the London Times, proves to be unfounded, and the English Ministry will remain for the present unchanged. There had been no alteration in Fenian affairs. Arrests still continue, but no disturbances had occurred. The English Government had seized two vessels intended for Chilian service. Rumors prevailed of a serious disagreement between Austria and Prussia in regard to the Duchies. Turkey had called for a conference on the affairs of the Danubian Principalities. It will probably be held in Paris.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate yesterday, Mr. SUMNER offered a petition for a protective tariff: referred to the Committee on Finance. Mr. LANE, of Kansas, introduced a resolution instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to report on Thursday next an amendment to the Constitution with reference to representation, taxation, the rebel war debt, and payment for slave property. After a brief debate the resolution was laid over for the present. The resolution to print the usual number of Lanman's Dictionary of Congress was adopted. A resolution in regard to the diminution of United States notes was introduced by Mr. SHERMAN, and referred to the Committee on Finance. The bill for the admission of Colorado was then taken up, the question being upon Mr. SUMNER's amendment. After a somewhat protracted discussion the amendment was withdrawn, and a vote was ordered on the bill, which simply recognizes Colorado as one of the States of the Union. The yeas and nays were demanded on the motion to order a third reading of the bill, and the Senate refused to do so by a vote of 14 to 21. The Regular Army Bill was made the special order for to-day, and the Senate adjourned.

In the House Mr. COFFROTH offered a resolution of inquiry, which was adopted, relative to the relief of such persons as paid commutation money or put in substitutes twice. On motion of Mr. PHELPS, the Committee of Ways and Means was instructed to inquire into the expediency of so amending the Internal Revenue Law as to remit the monthly duty on average deposits of savings banks. Mr. SCHENCK reported back from the Military Committee a bill to incorporate a Military and Naval Asylum, for the relief of totally disabled officers and men of the volunteer forces of the United States. The bill was passed. Mr. MORRILL reported back the Senate amendment to the bill to extend the time for the withdrawal of bonded goods. The amendment substituting May for April was concurred in. Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, reported back, with amendments, the Civil Rights Bill. The amendments were agreed to and the bill was passed by a vote of 109 to 38. Mr. BALDWIN introduced a bill to establish a Reform School for boys in the District of Columbia. The bill on constructing and repairing the national fortifications was next taken up, and being amended, was passed. The joint resolution providing for the representation of the United States at the Paris Exposition in 1867 was then taken up, and ably supported by Mr. BANKS.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

In the Senate, yesterday, a bill was introduced authorizing the construction of Rand's Elevated Steam Railroad in Whitehall and other streets in New-York; also a bill providing that a mortgage taken in good faith upon any building in progress of erection, alteration or repair, shall have priority after the record of such mortgage; also a bill to extend the time for the construction of the Hudson and Harlem River Canal to three years; also a bill to amend the act for the incorporation of life and health insurance companies by conferring additional powers on Superintendents in the Insurance Department. The bill exempting the National Academy of Design from taxation was passed; also the bill exempting from restriction as to fare the Cooperstown and Susquehanna Valley Railroad; also the bill ceding to the United States jurisdiction over West Bank and Old Orchard Shoal, in the Lower Bay of New-York, for quarantine purposes; also the bill relative to the examination of affairs of insurance companies by Superintendents of the Insurance Department, and authorizing the publication of the Superintendents' report thereon.

The House, in Committee of the Whole, considered the bill making an appropriation of $500,000 for the erection of a new Capitol. After considerable debate, the bill was made the special order for Wednesday next. The bill incorporating the Underground Railroad Company was reported. A resolution was offered that the Comptroller of New-York be requested to report to this House forthwith the returns of fines and sentences made to him by the Court of Special Sessions up to date, and also those of 1864, made to him by the same Court under the old law. A bill was noticed for the better protection of tenants against the extortions of landlords in the City of New-York.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Commissioner of Customs has received important information from a special agent of the Department, now visiting South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, to the effect that extensive arrangements are being made mostly by men engaged in blockade-running during the late war, to smuggle goods into the ports along this coast. The numerous bays, inlets and rivers along that portion of the Southern coast indicated, afford tempting opportunities for those who have made themselves familiar with the locality. Vessels have been prepared at several points especially for this illegal business. But the Department is awake to the importance of the matter, and, doubtless, the law-breakers there will, as they have on the Canada frontier, come to grief.

News from Havana is received that the planters of the island have been thrown into great consternation by the issue of a decree from the Home Government directing that the emancipados or native Africans held as slaves on the plantations should be immediately brought to the Government depot at Havana. This sudden withdrawal of so many hands, it was feared, would materially affect the agricultural interests. The above decree was issued in October last, but its publication has been delayed by the Captain-General.

By the way of Havana, later news from Mexico is received. OGAZON had landed at Allata, in Quaddajora, with a staff of American officers and arms purchased at San Francisco. He is reported to have joined CORONA, and their united forces were carrying on hostilities in Mazetton. About the 10th of February a Juarist force took possession of the City of Tlascala, taking prisoners the garrison and the military commandant, and securing $8,000 belonging to the Imperial Railroad Company.

On Sunday night a fearful land slide took place at Pittsburgh. Rocks which were estimated to weigh about 6,000 tons, covered the Connellsville Railroad track for a distance of 100 feet, and fell upon a portion of the rolling-mill of Messrs. EVERSON, PRESTON & Co. The rocks fell upon the roof of the middle building, crushing it under its mighty weight. The fly-wheel was broken, the rocks covered up the bar mill train of rollers and furnace, and most of the machinery was destroyed.

An interesting correspondence was held on Monday, over the telegraph wires, between the Government officials at Omaha, Nebraska, and the Sioux Indians at Fort Laramie. The Indians showed sufficient faith in the strange mode of communication to secure a peace and arrange the details of other business. An agreement was entered into for a commission to assemble at Fort Laramie on the 1st of June next, to conclude a treaty with all the lately hostile tribes of the Upper Platte.

Arrangements have been made to establish and endow a scientific school in connection with the Wesleyan University at Middletown, Conn. It has been suggested that it be named the "Drew Scientific School," in honor of DANIEL DREW, Esq., whose liberal benefactions to the cause of education will, when his plans are completed, probably reach the sum of half a million of dollars.

Capt. HUNTER telegraphs from Grenada, Miss., to Gov. BROWNLOW, of Tennessee, that he has captured the man, or one of the parties, who were reported to have formed a plot to assassinate the Governor. Gen. THOMAS at once ordered the accused to be sent under guard to Nashville, for trial before a military commission.

The Matamoras Ranchero of the 27th ult. says that a railroad is to be built from San Fernando to Monterey, so as to have a port entirely and unmistakably within Mexican territory, and rapid through communication with it. The port will probably be at the Barra de Jesus Maria, not many leagues south of Bagdad.

The military post known as Cottonwood, on Platte River, will be known in future as Fort McPherson, in honor of the gallant Gen. MCPHERSON, who was killed in the campaign in Northern Georgia. It is in Nebraska Territory, between Fort Kearny and Julesburgh.

Anti-monopoly meetings are constantly held through the West. At Orland, Cook County, Ill., the farmers have formed a league for the purpose of working in concert toward the reduction of the present evil. They insist that the only remedy for overcharges in freight is a ship canal around Niagara Falls.

At St. Louis, on the 10th, GEORGE STARR, under sentence of death for the killing of WILLIAM SMITH, was taken out of his cell in the county jail for the purpose of being baptized by immersion, which ceremony was performed at the Christian Baptist Church.

Mr. GEORGE PARRY, the resident secretary of the English capitalists interested in Minnesota railroads, in a speech at St. Cloud to a Montana meeting, said that the British capitalists are now considering the propriety of building a railroad from Minnesota to Montana.

At a meeting of the American Institute, last evening, the proposed new by-laws were further discussed, and after Article X had been reached and adopted, a recess was taken until Tuesday evening next. Sixteen articles are yet to be acted upon.

The statement that there was a plot to assassinate Gov. BROWNLOW, of Tennessee, was not a canard. The prime mover in it has been arrested at Granada, Miss., and is now on the way to Nashville, where he will be tried by Military Commission.

A Richmond paper mentions a rumor that Gen. TERRY proposes soon to pay a visit to Fortress Monroe, and states that the gossips are already linking this report in connection with the distinguished prisoner now confined there.

The New-Jersey Legislature yesterday, passed resolutions requesting Congress to increase the salaries of our naval officers. Other States have taken similar action and it is expected that Congress will respond to these appeals.

The petroleum refineries of Cleveland, Ohio, are seriously damaging the water supply of the city. Even the ice which has been cut for use next Summer is impregnated with oil. It is proposed to extend pipes far out into the lake, in imitation of Chicago.

Information has been received of the identification of QUANTRELL, the Kansas guerrilla. He will be brought to Washington for trial.

LOCAL NEWS.

In the Superior Court, Trial Term, Part II, Justice MONELL presiding, the Jury in the case of LOUISA REICHENBACHER vs. JOHN KAMMERER, yesterday rendered a verdict of $5,000 for the plaintiff. The action was brought by the guardian of the plaintiff to recover for damages sustained in consequence of a breach of promise of marriage under such circumstances as to greatly injure the reputation of the plaintiff. After the suit was commenced the defendant appeared by his attorney, and put in an answer, wherein, after denying generally the material allegations of the complaint, he set up, by way of avoidance, that his victim was a young woman of bad character. When the case was called in its regular order on the calendar the defendant did not appear. Hence an inquest was taken, and the Jury, after listening to the testimony of the plaintiff and her witnesses, assessed her damages for the full amount claimed—$5,000. The Court and Jury evidently believed that defendant's charge of plaintiff's previous bad character should go in aggravation of his conduct, and some of the jurors stated that if it had been possible they would have given a larger verdict.

A verdict of $200 was rendered yesterday in the Superior Court, Part II, in the case of THOMAS WIGLEY, vs. LOUIS BALLENBERG. Plaintiff is a goldbeater in this City, and in 1863 and 1864, when gold was very high, he had a boy in his employ who, when he went into the shop to sweep out, was in the almost daily habit of filching small pieces of gold. These he sold from time to time to the defendant. The total amount disposed of to the latter is estimated at several hundred dollars. When the plaintiff learned where his gold went he expostulated with defendant on the impropriety of buying it from the boy. The defendant replied that he had a right to do so. The jury, however, thought otherwise, and rendered a verdict against BALLENBERG for the amount stated.

Mr. JOHN ANDERSON, a resident of New-Brunswick, N. J., made affidavit before Justice DOWLING yesterday, to the effect that his son JOHN HENRY ANDERSON, assisted by GEORGE HAVENSTILE and THOMAS SMITH, had broken into his bureau-drawer and took therefrom the sum of $2,600 in United States Treasury notes and two gold watches. HAVENSTILE and SMITH were arrested and committed for examination. Young ANDERSON has not been secured. All three of the accused are lads of 17 and 18 years of age. The money has been recovered.

JOHN MATTHEWS and STEWART J. DONNELLY, members of the Third Precinct Police, were yesterday arrested, and arraigned before Justice DOWLING at the Tombs, on a charge of having stolen five pistols from the store of JOSEPH MERWIN, No. 262 Broadway, at the late fire on Saturday night. The stolen property was found in the possession of the accused, and MATTHEWS confessed his share of the crime. Both were held to bail to await an examination.

United States Marshal MURRAY yesterday arrested Messrs. JACOB DONAU, SIMON DONAU, RICHARD DEABY, ZACHARIAS OPPENHEIMER, M. ELLANGER, JOHN FRANK, KAHNWEILER, J. TAUSIG and S. HERMAN, on the charge of bribing a United States officer, so as to influence his conduct in reference to the quantities of liquors distilled by them. They were held to bail in $3,000 each.

The Committee of the Board of Supervisors, appointed to investigate the charges of fraud made against the County Court-house Committee, met again yesterday, and took a considerable quantity of evidence in relation to the price of iron-work at the time the contract for constructing the Court-house was made. Produce and merchandise were quite dull and heavy yesterday, prices favoring buyers. Freights were less active.

The receipts of all the animals at the various Live Stock Markets amount to 28,948, against 25,429 the previous week. The number of beeves was 5,498; milch cows, 134; calves, 141; sheep, 16,153; live hogs, 7,022. The prices for beef are on the decline. Trade was exceedingly dull on Tuesday. Indeed, most brokers and drovers declared there was no market at all. We saw a large number of fat bullocks offered on Tuesday for $15 per head less than they would have sold for on Monday, and no one took them at that price. Beef is evidently 1c. ℘ lb. lower than it was last week, notwithstanding some brokers of good authority insisted that the price had declined full 1½c. ℘ lb. since the last market. Milch cows are more firm, in better request, but really no higher in price than they were one week ago. The receipts are heavy, and a large number were good cows. Calves are less active, with unusually light arrivals. At most of the markets the selling price was about 1c. ℘ lb. lower than it was one week ago. The receipts of sheep number a trifle more than the weekly average, with prices easy at 7½c.@8½c. ℘ lb., live weight. The number received for the week is 16,153. The arrivals of live hogs are 7,022, against 6,040 for the previous week. This number is about 4,000 less than the yearly average per week. The demand is moderate, and prices easy at 10½c.@10¾c. ℘ lb., live weight, and 12¾c.@13c., dressed, ℘ lb., for prime heavy Western corn-fed.

New-Hampshire—The First Gun.

Yesterday the people of New-Hampshire reëlected their Union Governor by a very handsome majority—considerably larger than that for Mr. LINCOLN in 1864.

This is the first State election since the assembling of Congress and the definitions of policy made by Mr. JOHNSON in his message and by the extreme Radicals through their spokesman, Mr. THADDEUS STEVENS. It is the earliest opportunity that the people have had to express their confidence in the Government, and they have done it most emphatically. Only yesterday morning the Tribune emitted one of those peculiar paragraphs for which it is notorious, and in which the editor betrayed his ardent desire that New-Hampshire might be carried by the Democrats. We do not imagine that the writer is disappointed; the time and the manner of his exhibition prove that he knew its impotence.

We congratulate the sound and practical Union men of the Granite State upon their steadfastness to faith and principle. Their example will stimulate our friends in Connecticut to renewed exertions, and we shall continue to hope for equally gratifying results in that State next month.

One great fact—never doubted by the well-informed—is emphasized by this New-Hampshire election; and that is, that however leaders in Congress and followers outside may differ and dispute upon points of doctrine and means to ends, the loyal Republican people believe in the living reality of the Union, the Constitution and the laws, and that they mean to stand firmly by the great party of Unionists who sustained the policy and the hands of our martyred President, and who recognize the essential points of that policy in the acts of his legitimate successor, ANDREW JOHNSON. If the new firm of WENDELL PHILLIPS & WILLARD SAULSBURY are delighted with their first venture in a State canvass, so be it; we are content.

THE SPRING TRADE.—The heavy decline in many lines of goods and the fall in general merchandise are having a very unsettling effect on the Spring trade, and business is much more backward at this season than had been anticipated. Many of our merchants are very much discouraged, both on account of the limited demands, and the heavy losses upon the stock in hand. They may take it for certain, we think, that this fall is not a mere fluctuation, which may take another direction in another day. It is quite sure to prove permanent, and to be followed, by-and-by, by further movements in the same direction. This is the legitimate course now and henceforward, and all parties might as well prepare for it. It will take from many dealers a portion of the heavy profits of previous years; but it will also help to bring about a time in which the course of trade will be more steady, and its results, on the whole, more satisfactory.

Our Public Markets—The Utter Want of Accommodation.

The resolution passed by the Board of Alderman on Monday to report upon steps for a public market between Thirty-third and Thirty-fifth streets on the East River, and another on the ground bounded by East, Broome, Tompkins and Delancey streets, suggests serious consideration on the whole subject of market accommodation in this City.

That we are far behind other metropolitan cities in this great matter of household marketing is too patent a fact to need proof. Washington Market possesses none of the requirements for accessibility or accommodation. It is inconvenient, badly located, and, even in spite of the utmost sanitary effort, must be uncleanly. The Fulton Market is no better. The other markets are wholly inefficient, and might as well, except for the sake of the inhabitants in their immediate neighborhoods, not exist at all. What we want is a metropolitan market worthy of the name in all respects; and this want is not, we think, met by the proposition just made.

Such a market as this City ought to possess would accomplish many desirable ends. It should be easily accessible by purchasers and by salesmen. It should preserve a just relation to the North and East Rivers, and the approach from up town and by the ferries. It should be a source of revenue to the City, and it should be of ample extent for the sale of all kinds of food. But one great object to be gained by the establishment of a great depot for the supply of New-York should be the regulation of prices to consumers. These prices, as we have over and over again shown, are kept at an unnatural standard by the combinations of middle-men, who intercept almost every article of consumption before it reaches the City. These middle-men are neither producers nor actual merchants. They are simply speculators, who create daily monopolies by meeting farmers, fishermen and graziers half way, and "regulating" supplies and prices for their own benefit. A good metropolitan market would strike at the heart of this grievance, if it contained space devoted to country producers, whose wagons should be encouraged, or required, if necessary, to remain therein until a fixed hour in the day—say eleven o'clock. Of course, a rent would be demanded by the City for such standing privilege; and it would be cheerfully paid, for the market gardener would gain much more profit than he does at present by selling to the middle-man.

The market we suggest should be for the sale of meat, fish, game, vegetables, fruit, poultry, and country produce generally. The plan of the necessary building could be very easily devised. The basement and first floor would naturally contain the meat and fish. A second floor would be available for vegetables, country produce, fruit, &c. The outer screen might be devoted to stores for various retail trades. But these details would be considered when a building is designed. The locality is the first step to be thought of.

We think that the region bounded by Tryon-row on the south, Chatham and Centre streets on the east and west, and a line extending between the two latter, at a point some blocks northward, would constitute, in all respects, a most desirable site. It is on the line of nearly all the great City railroads, and is a central point between the chief ferries. Its elevation is such as to secure a good circulation of air, and the descending grades of the sewers, east and west, would insure very efficient drainage. The approaches for pedestrians are excellent, and there would be not a tithe of the interference with City travel that is now caused by the crowded condition of the present markets, pressed upon as they are by narrow, dirty, ill-paved and ill-ventilated streets.

The question of expense and probable returns is an important one. On this point the site we name is very suitable. The character of the property within the area described is not such as to lead to any regret for its removal; nor should its cost be excessive. But even if the cost were greater than we can imagine, the results pecuniarily to the City would be of great importance. We believe that the revenues of a well-built, spacious and well-managed metropolitan market would be very large. We should not be surprised if such revenues were nearer ten than five millions of dollars annually.

We do not in these suggestions mean to ignore all of the present markets. Those up-town, or a new one up-town, might be advantageous. But our City ought to have one great centre of supplies, to which consumers could come, with a certainty of finding the best of every article of food at the cheapest rate, and which could receive the goods of producers without being subjected to a heavy tax by meddlesome extortioners.

GEN. SHERMAN ON SOUTHERN CLAIMANTS.—There are a few Southerners who pretend to fancy that the United States Government should compensate them for all the damage done to their property by our armies during the late war. There are not a few claims of this kind before Congress. Gen. SHERMAN's comments on one of these claims are rather pungent. It was the claim of a man nearly a century old, a citizen of the burned City of Columbia, who asked reimbursement for damages done while SHERMAN's troops were in or near Columbia. Gen. SHERMAN tells the claimant that if the United States were to assume the liability for the property destroyed, it would be an admission that we had done wrong in carrying on the war against rebellion; and in regard to the interesting historical question as to the responsibility for burning Columbia, he declares that the fires which consumed the city were set by the rebels, and that he gave no orders for the burning of the city. On the contrary, he fastens the responsibility upon the rebel Gen. WADE HAMPTON, and says to the claimant: "Your true remedy is against him, and such others of your own citizens as conspired with him." In short, even if the utterly inadmissible principle of reimbursing the losses of citizens of a territory with which we were at war were admitted, it would be impossible, as a general thing, to bring them to any practical adjustment.

International Telegraphy.

A measure which involves questions of grave national importance is now under consideration by the United States Senate, in the bill reported by Senator MORGAN, to encourage telegraphic communication between the United States and the Island of Cuba, and other West India Islands and the Bahamas. Permission is asked of Congress to allow certain citizens of the United States the exclusive privilege for a limited number of years to lay a telegraphic cable over or upon a specified part of the coast of the United States, with a view to connection with the West India Islands. From the debates in the Senate on this question on the 26th ult., we find that this privilege is asked to protect American interests which are now jeopardized by an exclusive grant given by the Government of Spain to certain Spanish subjects to open telegraphic communication between the United States and Cuba. We also learn that a French Company, with exclusive privileges for one hundred years, has been heavily subsidized by NAPOLEON III., and that the privilege for this Company to land on our shores has been the subject of diplomatic correspondence. It is to insure the protection of American interests against foreign monopolists of this nature that the Senate Committee on Commerce has acted in reporting this bill. If we concede that the effect of such an enterprise would be desirable, is it within the power of Congress to make such a grant? Is it such an element entering into the commercial business of the people of the United States in their relations with the rest of the world, that it is legitimately a subject of regulation under the eighth section of the Constitution?

We think that both these questions may be answered in the affirmative. Telegraphing is of such comparatively recent discovery that any reasoning upon its relations to the Government must be by analogy rather than from precedent. The law cedes territorial ownership of the land on the coast between high and low water marks to the several States, and vests the dominion in the United States to a distance from the shore of a maritime league, or the range of a cannon shot. The United States then have clearly the right to say—a right which has never been disputed—that no foreign nation shall establish a battery within the waters of such maritime league. This being the case, has not the General Government the right to forbid the laying of a telegraphic cable upon the fundum within this limit? In view of the fact that a telegraphic cable might be made as dangerous to the safety of the nation as the erection of a battery, we think the power is equally unquestionable. Upon the right and duty of self-defence the whole principle of the exclusiveness of the maritime league rests. Under the power incident to this dominion the General Government can also declare that the War or Navy Departments might exclusively lay and use these cables over this particular territory for the safety or convenience of its military posts or navy yards—a power which might be delegated to certain of its own citizens primarily, for its own convenience, and secondarily, for that of the general public, so far as its capacity extended beyond their own needs, thus excluding foreign nations from occupying the coast line by an agency so potential for good or evil as a telegraphic cable. This point does not touch the question of the power of Congress under the eighth section of the Constitution to regulate commerce with foreign nations. There may be some difficulty here, but less, perhaps, than appears at the first view of the subject.

It will be admitted that the telegraph is now fully incorporated into, and has become a part of the modern commercial system of the world, but it has uses other than commercial, and features unlike any other element entering into the constitution of that comprehensive word, Commerce—an element making it quite necessary that Government should exercise some control over it. Swift as thought, voiceless while speaking, in an instant a cypher message may pass from one continent to another which might gravely affect the interests of a whole people. The grantees having first procured the riparian rights, as well as the State grants, the consent of the general Government to lay the cable within the limits of the maritime league beyond is essential. It would seem that the most constitutional government in the world should assume in some way to regulate such an agency as this—at least to see that it is in the hands of its own citizens.

ON THE WRONG TRACK.—Anxious as we are to have the rents of houses and stores reduced to reasonable rates in this metropolis, and many as are the plans we have suggested to aid in bringing about this object, we must disapprove of the proposition adopted at a mass meeting of Germans the other night. It was to petition the State Legislature to adopt a law with the view of preventing the extortions of landlords; and a Committee was appointed to go to Albany to secure the passage of such a law. If we thought legislation could effect this object, we should favor it—unless we conceived the legislation would do greater harm in other directions than it prevented in this. But we have no idea that legislation could reduce the price of house-rents any more more than of house-furniture, or coal or gold. Experiments in this direction have been tried often enough since the world was made; but we have yet to hear of the first instance of their achieving anything like success. It is nothing novel to say that such matters must be left to the old economic laws, which ultimately mete out substantial justice to all.

CONCILIATION.—The journal so long blattan for "peace upon the best attainable terms," says:

> "New-Hampshire holds her State election to-day. The recent utterances of Messrs. WILLIAM H. SEWARD and HENRY WARD BEECHER form the principal electioneering stock of the Copperhead Party. We hope."

The best possible chance of success for our friends in New-Hampshire and Connecticut rests upon the truly enlightened "utterances" of the gentlemen thus assailed. Nor is it the first time States have been saved in critical circumstances by kindred "utterances." When madness and folly had the popular helm, a Maine election was saved by the acceptance of wiser counsels; while, in the same year, Connecticut was held to her Union anchor by inviting GREELEY, PHILLIPS, &c., to bestow their speeches elsewhere.

LOUISIANA.

New-Orleans Municipal Election—A Democrat Chosen Mayor.

NEW-ORLEANS, Monday, March 12.

JOHN J. MONROE, the National Democratic candidate for Mayor of the City, was elected over Mr. MOORE, the National Union candidate, by 316 majority. Three of the four Recorders elected are also National Democrats, while the fourth is a National Unionist.

Reply to the Oration of Hon. George Bancroft.

BY JOHN RENNIE, OF ALBANY.

The love I bear to both countries in question is my excuse for addressing you at this time in relation to some of your remarks contained in your recent oration at Washington. If "eternal wisdom marshal the great procession of the nations, and nothing is by chance, though men in their ignorance of causes may think so," why style it a "grasping ambition" that has "dotted the world" with the possessions of Great Britain? In opening the world to commerce and a higher state of civilization, into whose possession could they have passed to become eventually more beneficial to the world at large? As nothing is by chance, should we not commend the All-wise in so disposing, in His "marshalling the great procession of the nations?" Was it reverential to call it into question? Is thy fault-finding free from envy?—it certainly cannot be from fear—we see nothing to fear, and therefore the inference may be drawn. Do you remember the great longings we had after Cuba, and how many of us have bitten our nails to the quick that LOPEZ and WALKER were unsuccessful? If LOPEZ could have maintained a belligerent attitude for a month, should we not have been ready to acknowledge the independence of Cuba? We could have fixed the same programme for him that we did for SAM HOUSTON and TEXAS—we could leave it with the people—that is, the people we sent there to fix it.

Was it or was it not a "territorial aggrandizement" that extended the domain of the United States from Louisiana to the Pacific? We will admit the territory is now ours beyond a doubt; but the grasping ambition you speak of, the honesty of the pretext, the piratical manner of obtaining the same, might be seriously brought into question. Let us see: We lay it down as a fundamental principle that no State can go out of the Union. When Mexico said the same about Texas, we said, "We'll see about that." We acknowledged her independence, and pulled her out. We then rushed in with our army, captured the Mexican commander in battle, and compelled him to own up that she was out, and her boundary the Rio Grande. Mexico refused to ratify the same; said it could not be done. We said again, "We'll see about that." FREMONT and STOCKTON went across and around to head them off, and we went up the Rio Grande and completed the conquest of Mexico. For this we demanded one-half of the whole country. We made them give us a bill of sale. We then give them a little change, so as to make it right on the record. We come back with flying colors, singing to the tune of "Uncle Sam is rich enough to give us all a farm." Of course, we weren't grasping or ambitious about those days—not a bit of it. I fail to see that any dominant party in Great Britain has any "terror or envy of this commonwealth where freeholds exist by the million." I fully believe they rejoice that there is a place where their overcrowded fellows can swarm when their hive is too full, and the emigrant rejoices that we are so accessible and so extensive. Great Britain would rather her surplus population would choose a home upon her "new continent," of which your remarks appear somewhat irritable, saying nothing about "narrow views;" but be the broad view known that freeholds are there by the million for all, as freely as they were here previous to the Homestead Act, and at figures as low. Free passage to Australia for companies consisting of two males to one female has been freely offered at different times to emigrants since 1838. Comparatively few have availed themselves of the offer, not on account of any want of love for the laws or institutions of their country, but partly on account of the long and dangerous voyage, and the comparative short distance to this continent; and further, not wishing it said, upon their arrival, that they came as paupers, passage free. Shall we attribute spleen or lack of piety to him who would not rejoice that Providence had so ordered it that that new and vast continent was destined, like this, to become by civilization, in our own tongue, ("the richest of all languages among men,") great in the procession of nations. If I mistake not, the Queen of Great Britain has sent a letter of "condolence and sympathy for the poor man's son, whom America had chosen for her chief." And her son has not forgotten the kindness of Miss HARRIET LANE, although no longer an occupant of the White House. It was a gross mistake on your part to say anything about "large hands or long feet." That should have been buried with those jokes that his enemies here sought to palm off as originating with him. He had a droll but honest way of expressing himself in convivial and political gatherings we accept; but that he was obscene as his enemies here charged to his account, was not even reiterated there, nor believed anywhere. It was beneath the dignity of the occasion, and if there was anything said about hands and feet, it was during his life, and no harm was intended. I beg leave to call your attention to facts. The idea is prominently set forward by you that the poor man's son in Great Britain cannot attain position commensurate with his merits, when it should be well known by an historian of your pretension—if it is not—that many of the members of both Houses of Parliament, Judges, Governors and other officers appointed or elected, not only spring from poor men's sons, but rich or poor alike cannot retain a position long except by merit.

It is not material what little a man may have, but to know he deserves that little is satisfactory, be he a Yankee Squire or an English Peer. The aristocracy of Great Britain are with rare exceptions noble men—though they were without that name—excelling in all branches of the arts and sciences, in literature, political economy or jurisprudence, displaying merit of the first order. Were it not so, the influence they now hold would be on the wane. The reform bill and the "suffrage question." The friends of this measure will require something more than the "inchoate magnificence" of being a biped to constitute eligibility to its privileges. We have found that out ourselves with John Chinaman in California, saying nothing about any other locality. The day of "Church and State" may be no longer necessary; it has done good service; it has long since ceased to exert any undue influence, but has sanctioned the broadest toleration; as a power in the Government, it retains but its name. Slavery; some few exceptions may be taken against your attempt to fasten the cause of our implication in the matter upon England; you who have a knowledge to what extent Englishmen in particular have accomplished in its suppression. I therefore take it to be ungenerous to allude to "ninety-four years ago, Virginia addressed the British King, against the inhumanity of the slave-trade; that the King replied, upon pain of his highest displeasure, it should not be obstructed, and by this means fastened it upon the colonies." It was an exparte statement. The off-set to this may be found in the settlement of Georgia and her Constitution, forty years previous. The King signed a free Constitution prohibiting Slavery. The English Moravians and Scotch Highlanders lived under this charter. Years later the people of Georgia petitioned to be allowed to employ slaves; that the prohibition was the only bar to their happiness, and were importunate until it was granted. For this reason Mr. OGLETHORPE and others left the colony to return no more. It is denied, therefore, that "the monarchy of England fastened Slavery upon us," but that it was reluctantly allowed, at the urgent solicitation and petition of the people; and further, that slaves were first introduced into Virginia from a Dutch man-of-war. The scape-goat and its sins were our own, and has been, at home and abroad, much to our disgrace, an annoyance to our conscience, like a lie unmixed with a truth; was so prominent that it required much faith to see anything in our Constitution, and our construction of it, but contradictions; it was like an unseen hand clapped upon the mouth whenever we were about to praise our country or her institutions; the historian lightly touches with his pen a blot so dark; the muses harp the while, had broken strings, and could not shrill or trill upon a thing and theme so out of tune, so utterly discordant. We are not conversant with anything in a civilized country so humiliating and disgraceful as the Fugitive Slave Law, and the right to property in man, and yet these you confess were the decisions of Congress and the Supreme Court, "Pharisaical" BANCROFT, who fails to see a difference between the decisions of a Mansfield and a Taney; "Pharisaical," you might have said, to abolish the Slave-trade with millions in bondage. Oh, yes! we ask no favors of the traffic; we can breed them in Virginia and run them South like mules; and when the day comes for it to fall in ruins, and its victims go free, we shall hear GEORGE BANCROFT fix the odium of the whole upon those who manumitted man half a century ago; and he will sum it up and be full as truthful and consistent as was TANEY.

Is it to be wondered at that the British Secretary of Foreign Affairs, if he did make haste to send word through Europe that "the Great Republic was in its agony, or no more," when the person who complains of said communication says the same in substance, in one grand flourish of rhetoric? In speaking of the Republic at this time, he says: "It seemed to have its emblem in its vast unfinished Capitol, surrounded by stone and masses of prostrate columns, seemingly the monuments of high but delusive aspirations, the confused wreck of inchoate magnificence, sadder than any ruin of Egyptian Thebes or Athens."

If the sentiments of the ruling classes in Great Britain were not friendly to our cause, then Mr. THURLOW WEED misstated the case, and his mission to London was a failure, or of none effect. Could my feeble efforts in behalf of my native land be but one-tenth the importance, I shall feel, like him, fully recompensed. But the effect of Mr. WEED's visit is sufficiently proven by himself, and the fruits of his good services are a standing truth that no historian can confute, however much he may imagine it to his interest, in his narrow views, to hide or omit its importance in his writings or orations; for this fact of truth will live when those now dead to its importance are forgotten, though his orations be first rate or third rate.

Is it material what the "position of Great Britain was in relation to belligerents at the time of our struggle for independence," or what remonstrances took place? France acted upon the principle that we were, and we took their construction of the matter. I deny that the Confederates were acknowledged as belligerents. "Notwithstanding Great Britain knew the rebellion to be for the perpetual enslavement of a race," the emancipation of the race was not even avowed then, even by Mr. LINCOLN or Mr. SEWARD, in connection with this rebellion. The Emancipation Proclamation grew out of continued resistance to lawful authority. It was decidedly unpopular with the masses at the commencement, and not acted upon until the third year. The rendition of fugitives and the Dred Scott decision surely gave the world no reason to suppose that the North intended, or was ready for the question of general emancipation.

The opinion is becoming more prevalent that the trial of SEMMES will fully establish that no piratical act was committed by him. If he has committed piracy, then the seizure of the commercial marine of all parties, at all times, has been piracy. Any "alteration of the law" in Great Britain touching the delicate question between belligerents, would have been construed by the opposite party as diverging from neutrality and a nullification of the Queen's proclamation, and therefore the law was left undisturbed until hostilities have ceased. We are now invited to accept of our own request, "and the justice of that request is conceded," although it would have been unjust and impolitic to alter the law at that time. You have certainly overstrained and drawn upon your imagination for those "scoffs." Your comparisons are in bad taste, offensive, insulting and wounding to the feelings of any right-minded man or people. PALMERSTON is dead. It is well known he was never more cautious or more serious than when treating of American affairs. I shall not "compare him" to any man; will simply say he was a sagacious statesman, a wise counselor; he met the approval of his countrymen for sixty years; he gained and held his position by merit of the first order; was a ripe scholar; was not ambitious; loved his country supremely—saw its prosperity, and died like the going down of the sun, full of glory, even to the last ray of his brilliant career. "No man," says Mr. BANCROFT, "can desire peace with England more than I do." If so, to put out fire you should use water, not fuel. It may be so, however—that is, if she will allow him to take a slice off some such place as Mexico, or some of those "gates" of the Pacific, or some extraordinary reciprocity concession, or some free gift, such as the Ionian Isles to Greece.

But he don't think they'll do it now, for we have established a precedent that a State cannot go out of the Union. Indemnity for the destruction caused by the Alabama to American commerce, if this be a just claim, is worthy of consideration. Let it be but clearly proven that the British Government or any official were cognizant, or a party aiding to get her off to sea, having a guilty knowledge of the facts, then the former decision in the matter will be reversed. It is noble to rectify an error, be it accidental, unavoidable or intentional. The dignity of this country was not compromised, nor her honor tarnished, when she delivered up MASON and SLIDELL. We now congratulate ourselves upon that event. Precedents are strong points in law. We have secured the one to lay by for future use, and have lost two enemies that we do not want. Their suffering must be greater as it is, in knowing they are outcasts from home and country. Nations are like individuals, and sooner or later discover that "honesty is the best policy."

But, if it is not established beyond a doubt that there was a knowledge of the affair, then the claim for damages sustained by American shippers will revert to the United States, that is, if the theory that the rebellious States have not been out of the Union is maintained by Congress. New-York citizens were indemnified for damages committed by rioters in 1863, and the nation, by the same reasoning, would seem to become liable for damages committed by that portion of her citizens in rebellion who have destroyed the property of the loyal, though the deed be committed on land, river or ocean. SEMMES, the commander, styling himself, by his commission, Admiral, was and is as much an American citizen as GEO. BANCROFT, athough they are at opposite extremes. The concession of belligerent rights to the Confederates necessarily carried with it the same privileges to either party to enter British ports. The question need not be put to any American citizen, for it is a conceded fact, that had the Alabama an opportunity to anchor in any port in the Union, from Maine to Oregon, in any city on the coast or village of the interior, SEMMES and his crew would have been publicly or privately entertained and lionized by most of the very men who now traduce Great Britain as being unfriendly to our cause. If this be true some allowance may be conceded on account of any reception SEMMES may have met with elsewhere. Unprejudiced, intelligent Americans may be found who are satisfied with Great Britain and her action during the struggle, more especially when they take into consideration that we once rebelled against them. It is to be wondered at that "King Cotton" did not succeed in pulling the wool over John Bull's eyes, so as to blind him to do all they wished. You know, that's the way they used to serve the North. But the old fellow was firm at bottom, and all along meant to do what was right, hence, if we have any just claim against him, his natural love of justice will set the matter right.

It is true that "Russia remained our friend," but was the motive pure? Is it not partly accounted for by her remote position, and that she has no cause to sympathize with rebels. She remembers her own history, in Poland, and Caucasia. GEO. BANCROFT reciprocates. Look not for cause, or motive. Russia may forbid the Pole to speak his own language; may banish the Circassians en masse to the frozen wilds of Siberia, to perish by thousands on the road, and he will be silent as to both. Consistency, thou art a jewel! But GEO. BANCROFT hath mislaid thee! Thou mayst yet be found in "China," which has been recently visited by the same epidemic—the revolt of her people—which she has suppressed, by dismemboweling and decapitating half a million human beings. Let us draw the vail.

I leave it for Americans to judge, including yourself, if there is any marrow in the bones when the chankings you have made are fairly reviewed.

There is no comment to make upon what you have said of the personal character, in memory and commendation of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, but meets a kindred response here. I have with his countrymen shed tears at his fate, and have, and do now exclaim: Oh, that he could have lived—lived, like WASHINGTON, to have taken us through the stormy waters, and then, in love and peace, to have died!

Americans, hasten to be friends one with another, then will you be friends with all the world; let no monument of victory be reared until each sister State shall send her stone along for its foundation. Oh! build it but of love, then will the mementoes of war lose their value, and the halls of military record be consumed; then, in gratitude, you will speak of him, the honest man, the heroic soul, the willing martyr, without passion or prejudice. Remember now the words of him who spoke as man never spake. Say to the South: Go thy way and sin no more; and to the North: "Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." Let there be no points in our compass. Then will you be constrained to say: "God rules in the affairs of man."

The Sioux Indians Swear a Peace—The Platte Route Safe—Sixty Miles of the Union Pacific Railroad Finished.

OMAHA, Tuesday, March 13.

All the principal Chiefs of the Upper Platte Sioux assembled at Fort Laramie yesterday.

Col. MAYNARDIER and Indian Agent JARROT, through an interpreter, held a long talk over the wires with Gen. WHEATON and Superintendent TAYLOR, at Omaha, during which talk the Sioux gave positive assurances that they would keep the peace.

The 1st of June next was agreed upon as the time for a commission to assemble at Fort Laramie to conclude a treaty with all the lately hostile tribes of the Upper Platte.

Seven hundred Indians were present during the talk.

There will be no further trouble on the Platte route.

This is the first instance of a conference by telegraph with the Indians.

Sixty miles of the Union Pacific Railroad were finished ten days ago. Commissioners to examine the road are expected in a few days.

Arrival of John Van Buren, Giraud Foster and Party at Charleston, S. C.

The steamship Quaker City, from New-York, arrived here at an early hour this morning, having on board Hon. JOHN VAN BUREN, GIRAUD FOSTER, Mr. and Mrs. STUYVESANT and others, on a trip to Savannah and the Florida ports.

MONTREAL, Tuesday, March 13, 1866.

After all the usual delays, more especially the absurd detentions at Rutland and other places in Vermont, caused by conflicting railroad interests, I have landed in this city. It was amusing to hear, as we were crossing the great tubular bridge, the half English, half French, and entirely barbarous exclamations of fear that there were Fenian torpedoes under every pier, and that only the protecting care of Heaven could prevent us from being blown up to the threshold of that desirable habitation.

I confess to no small astonishment at the unbounded credulity that seems to have possessed the people of this city. They wander along the banks of the river, wistfully looking toward St. Johns and St. Albans, in the expectation of seeing the pikes and shillelahs of of an army about the size of that with which XERXES made his foray upon Greece—and they expect, each man of them, to be the LEONIDAS for the forthcoming Thermopylæ.

Duly dumped by sleigh-stage (only imagine sleighing in the middle of March—you are airing your Summer suits) at a leading hotel, I found a degree of excitement that is here most miraculous; for, know you, dear reader, that Montreal is a decorously dull city, and the daily life of its inhabitants consists in getting up at 7 o'clock, going to mass, eating breakfast, going to the post-office, dropping in at St. Lawrence Hall and the Ottawa House, perusing the registers, smiling (frequently,) lounging up and down Grande-street, Jacques and Notre Dame streets, and going to bed with the sun. Usually the Winter passes with a dull uniformity; a few skating club masques, now and then a soiree, badly-played billiards on execrable tables, and a few stupid staves at barbarians from the States, make up the events of life.

But Fenianism has changed all this. True, we have but few Irishmen here, and probably four-fifths of them are loyal. As for the French habitans, they neither know nor care a—blessing about the matter. Let them have their two hours of chat and trade at Bonsecours market, their two drinks, and their two pipes of tobacco as they jog home in their bob-tailed one-horse carts, and they don't care whether the world whirls one way or the other.

Yet our John Bullions are pawing and bellowing most vociferously. Perhaps it is not too much to say that their mental condition illustrates the apothegm that "conscience doth make cowards of us all." I exonerate the Government; but did not nine-tenths of the people pet and praise, and feed and encourage, and incite such men as SAUNDERS and those who trained in his troop? Had these nine-tenths any tears to shed over the St. Albans outrage? Were they swift to write and talk about national comity and neutrality? Non mi ricordo. Have the chickens come home to roost? Possibly. I shall keep you posted.

MONTREAL, Tuesday, March 13—6 P. M.

The excitement here with regard to the Fenians is unabated, and there is very great alarm, especially among the women, who naturally magnify every rumor into the most extravagant proportions.

Yesterday we had a grand review of the newly-raised militia forces by Major-Gen. LINDSAY, after which 2,000 men were dispatched to various frontier posts.

At St. Johns there is a considerable force of men and some artillery. The Police are carefully examining the cars that come from the States, and are evidently expecting a great increase of passenger traffic.

The Canadian Police are everywhere along the border, and are very active in their duties. It is generally believed that a like activity, though less openly manifested, is the fact on the American side.

It is not to be disguised that the most grave and cool-judging officials are really apprehensive of trouble. You New-Yorkers, who look with such supreme indifference upon the movements of O'MAHONY and the other factions of Fenians, would be astonished at the importance here given to what happens in your City. Interested parties have worked up this excitement until it is really painful; they have magnified the motley crowd that gathered the other Sunday, at Jones Wood, in your City, into a grand invading army of a hundred thousand men, with supply, baggage and artillery trains; with serried ranks of cavalry and infantry, armed to the full with the best results of modern science; and so, before this giant of their own conjuration, the Canadians are trembling with apprehension of coming disaster.

The activity of the military here is commendable, particularly under their view of the situation. There are constant drills and reviews, and the commonly quiet streets of this slumberous town are vocal with clanging swords and the rumble of artillery wagons.

There is to be another grand review to-morrow morning.

MONTREAL, Tuesday, March 13—9 P. M.

I need not waste space to detail the routine duties of the militia. The newspapers of yesterday will give you full particulars. Certainly the authorities are wide awake.

The Gazette says:

"The benefits derivable from the more efficient organization of the Militia staff has been thoroughly proved by recent events. At a very early hour on Thursday morning the Governor-General assented to the General Order calling out the Volunteers, and through the excellence of the arrangements of the Adjutant-General and his able deputies and assistants here, these troops were all under arms within twenty-four hours—many of them before daylight on Thursday morning. A great deal of hard work has been done and well done in a very few hours by the staff."

The same paper calls T. W. SWEENEY "an officer in the United States Army holding the rank of major. We understand he has other militia rank. He goes by the name of Gen. SWEENEY. It was announced in the telegraphic dispatches some time ago that he was dismissed by Gen. GRANT, for attending Fenian meetings without leave of absence; and a little later, that he was afterwards reinstated by the Government as was boasted at one of the Fenian meetings at New-York, at the request of the Fenians."

You will observe that the New-York papers have not by any means a monopoly of the art of misrepresentation.

The Gazette also says: "We think it possible that a reward will be offered by the Government in a few days for the apprehension of the Stanbridge raiders." That was a barren raid, or rather no raid at all. It is one more case of guilty conscience.

There is no little noise here about an article in L'Union Nationale, a French paper. It is (the article) looked upon with suspicion, and many sensible people affect to believe that it foreshadows a formidable French Fenian organization. As it is a matter of serious import here, I send you the article entire:

Translated from L'Union Nationale.

The Ministry must really be in possession of grave information to take the measures of excessive prudence which we yesterday made known to our readers. It is true that the Irish patriots are meeting at the present time in this city and staying at the houses of their friends who live in Montreal, and will strike a great blow (frapperont un grand coup) on St. Patrick's Day, the 17th instant. If it should thus fall out, the 17th instant will be a great day in the annals of Canada, for it is also on the 17th that the Reciprocity Treaty will expire, and our commerce will fall in two at the least. Now is the Canadian Government in possession of other information yet more grave, or more likely? What is certain is, that the Canadian Government has caused certain representations to be made to the American Government, in consequence of certain representations which have reached it. What satisfaction it has obtained we cannot say; or rather, we believe that the Canadian Government has simply received a reply from the Washington Cabinet that it does not see anything, and consequently cannot hinder anything. The Fenians strongly insisted in the resolutions which were adopted at their great meeting in Jones' Wood, that the American Government should recognize in the Irishmen in revolt the character of belligerents. We do not doubt that, before long, they will succeed. President JOHNSON, who is now in strife with the divisions created in his own party by his veto of the Freedmen's Bill, will take care to place at his back the Irish population of the United States, which, in many places, gives the preponderance to the party which has its sympathies. The Cabinet at Washington has not forgotten that the armies of the United States which conquered the South, were composed in a great measure of Irishmen, and the American nation is greatly indebted to the generous manner in which the children of Ireland spilt their blood for it, for the peace which it enjoys to-day, and the glory with which the American flag is surrounded. And what the American nation and the Cabinet at Washington will not forget, is the great haste with which England recognized the character of belligerents in the rebels of the South. It will not be difficult for the Cabinet at Washington to establish a favorable comparison, for the recognition of Ireland as a belligerent, as between its case and that of the Southern revolt. And France, which recognized the South as belligerent, can she, logically, refuse the same favor to Ireland in arms? The short of the whole is, that the position of England in this question is more than critical. The sympathies of the world are with Ireland, as they were with Poland. And as there is nothing impossible in these days, when despotisms divide people among themselves without mutual understanding for the keeping of their prey, it would not be surprising to see Russia and the United States pluck Ireland from England and put the Emerald Isle in the casket of independent nations. Russia is the rival of England in Asia, and she has not forgotten the Crimean war. The United States are the rival of England in America, and even in Asia, and nothing would flatter Brother Jonathan more than to see Brother John Bull held at bay. As to France, there can be no question for her in sustaining the oppressor against the oppressed. If NAPOLEON were to make that political fault, it would be his first and his last. For not having defended Poland he lost prestige in the eyes of the people of France. If he were to combat against Ireland he would lose his crown. There would be no doubt in this for him who understands the heart and the intelligence of the people of France. England is then isolated in this question. If she does not settle the litigation with Ireland alone, it is impossible to calculate the affronts which await her. In the other event the fate of Ireland is sealed, and its martyrdom will end like that of Poland, with the last breath of the last Irishman. MEDERIC LANCTOT.

The order calling out the militia prescribes the following rates of pay and allowances per day: Lieutenant-colonel, $4 87—allowances, &c., $1; major, $3 90—allowances, $1; paymaster, $3 05—allowances, 90c.; adjutant, with rank of lieutenant, $2 44—allowances, 90c.; adjutant, with rank of ensign, $2 13—allowances, 90c.; captain, $2 82—allowances, 78c.; lieutenant, $1 58—allowances, 72c.; ensign, $1 28—allowances, 60c.; sergeant-major, 50c.; quarter-master sergeant, 45c.; paymaster's clerk, 45c.; orderly-room clerk, 45c.; hospital sergeant, 45c.; pay-sergeant, 40c.; sergeant, 35c.; corporals, 30c.; buglers, 25c.; privates, 25c. Non-commissioned officers and privates receive either free lodgings and rations or an allowance in lieu thereof, such allowance not to exceed 50c. per diem for each non-commissioned officer and man.

You may guess that we are not so sound asleep here, from the fact that in this city the authorities turned out, in fourteen hours, ten thousand men ready for duty. The rich people are ready to put down all the money needed.

Quebec is wide awake, and the Plains of Abraham are resonant with martial noise. One would really suppose, to hear the alarming and scarry conversation of the people, that the citadel was in most imminent danger of being captured by an Irish Drum-Major. So far away from the border, and so almost unanimously un-goish, it is curious that the fright should extend to this stupid old city.

Along the Michigan border there is, very properly, a great degree of activity in military matters. This is naturally the exposed point, and a great majority of those who deem invasion possible, expect it to come, if it should come, from that quarter. The Canadian Government seems to be of the same opinion, and has sent a large proportion of the available forces to Sarnia, Windsor and other points in that region.

A circular from the Commissioner of Customs to Collectors of Customs throughout the Province, specially instructs the officers to open and strictly and thoroughly search all baggage of passengers coming into the Province, and detain all arms, weapons and munitions of war of all kinds that may be found in such baggage, or may be otherwise brought in or be worn by passengers, who may be required to give their names in connection with list of arms, &c., &c., taken from them. Express goods are to be closely compared with the manifests, and packages which may create reasonable suspicion are to be opened and examined. Freight trains are to be carefully examined, and no package not mentioned on the manifest will be allowed to pass on any train. Cars must be securely locked or sealed before they pass beyond frontier ports.

The Montreal Evening Telegraph has the following important paragraph. I say nothing of the amiable spirit of the last sentence:

"We are informed by telegraph that conferences have taken place between the British Minister at Washington and Mr. SEWARD relative to the Fenian movement; that Sir FREDERICK BRUCE has been assured that no violation of the neutrality laws will be permitted, and that, if necessary, a warning proclamation will be issued. Mr. SEWARD was Governor of the State of New-York when the brigands of 1837-38 invaded Canada from that State, armed with weapons and supplied with artillery taken from armories purposely left open to them; for weeks they were encamped near the frontier, fed, and supplied with money; and so far from Gov. SEWARD attempting to stop the movement, he did all he could to obstruct the diliatory action of the Federal authorities. He and his Government are no more to be trusted to-day than then; they will prevent such a barefaced breach of neutrality as would involve war with Great Britain; and no doubt in the official interviews given to the Fenian leaders they have warned them what will not be tolerated, leaving them to infer what will. The American Government will not allow an army of invasion to assemble on its soil to attack Canada; but it will not prevent the material for such an army being collected, and sent across our frontier, and the officers and men who are to compose it following in groups to organize when they get here. These Provinces must depend upon themselves alone for protection; and they will be in the most danger when they cease to regard the United States Government and people as unscrupulous enemies, encouragers and allies of the brigands threatening them."

SPLENDID STRATEGY.

John Bull Bamboozled at Last—The Fenians Pretend to be Innocent of Creating Excitement in Canada—John B.'s Little Dodge Exposed—A New American Throne and Prince Alfred upon it—British Gold in Bags, at 131, in the Market—The Fenians Detect "the Atrocious Plot"—Their Detective System "Ramifies Society," &c., considerable—They go to Sir Edward Bruce's Tables and Thence to the Den of the "So-Called" Governor of Canada—Further Particulars will be given Immediately if not Sooner—☞ Look at This:—"The Bearer of Dispatches from the Queen of England, who Caused the Orders Above Referred to, IS A FENIAN and Now in New-York!!!!"

To the Reader:

As every Fenian movement thus far has been all head and no tail, or all promise and no performance, we have wasted several lines of precious space to give proper introduction to the latest manifesto from the headquarters of the grand Irish Republic in Union-square.

THE FENIANS—STARTLING DISCOVERY.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

It has been reliably ascertained that the military excitement now going on in Canada is the result of direct special commands from the Crown of Great Britain for the purpose of diverting the attention of the Fenian Brotherhood from Ireland as the grand objective point and to precipitate a union of the Provinces with Prince ALFRED on an American throne. The agents of England are now here laden with gold to carry out this plan, but they have been foiled by the detective system of the Fenian Brotherhood, which ramifies society in this country, even to the tables of Sir EDWARD BRUCE in Washington, and to the so-called Governor-General of the Canadas. Further particulars of these astounding developments will be given to the public immediately.

The bearer of dispatches from the Queen of England, and who carried the orders above referred to, is a Fenian, and now in New-York!

THE RUMORED MINISTERIAL CHANGES.

The rumored resignation of Earl RUSSELL, which the Times alone circulated, proved unfounded. The Globe pronounced the Times's statement a pure invention from beginning to end.

The Times of the 1st says the rumor to which it called attention, has been so authoritatively denied, that we hasten to correct the impression, and to moderate the speculations, which it naturally excited, the collateral rumors, of course, share the fate of the principal report, and the condition of the ministry remains in fact, unaltered, unless we may suppose it has acquired additional stability by way of reaction against false rumors.

The Daily News remarks on the persistent efforts of the Times to damage RUSSELL's Cabinet, and sets this rumor down as one of them. It asserts that RUSSELL's Cabinet has been daily growing stronger, and combats the idea, as do the other journals, that RUSSELL could think of resigning without attempting to carry the reform project, to which he is pledged.

The Owl gives what is probably another version of the Times' rumor, namely: "That RUSSELL, especially in the event of his carrying the Reform Bill, intends before long to retire." It also says there will be a change in the Cabinet shortly, to be caused by the retirement of Sir GEORGE GREY from the Home Secretaryship.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

In the House of Commons, on the 28th, the bill abolishing a certain declaration required on qualification for office, was passed for the sixth time by a vote of 176 to 55. The measure was always rejected in the House of Lords.

The bill regulating the Government of Jamaica was passed.

THE REFORM BILL.

Mr. GLADSTONE has announced the Reform bill for March 12.

FENIAN AFFAIRS.

Fenian affairs are unchanged. Arrests continue. Five Irish-Americans were arrested in Dublin on the 28th. Documents of a suspicious character were found on them.

The London Times says it is understood that the Horse Guards have determined upon strengthening the depot battalions of infantry in Ireland, and they will shortly be augmented by the addition of several English and Indian depots, now attached to battalions in England.

AMERICAN SECURITIES.

Satterthwait's Circular of the evening of the 28th says: "The market for American Securities during the week has been very firm, and an advance of nearly 2 ℔ cent has been established on Five-Twenties, Illinois and Eries. Five-Twenties close at 70¾, after touching 71. Illinois leave off at 78¼@78½. Eries 55¼@55½."

France.

In the Corps Legislatif, during a debate on the first paragraph of the address, JULES FAVRE censured the withdrawal of the extradition treaty with England, and expected the existence of some political motive for the step.

M. ROUHER, Minister of State, asserted that the measure had no political significance. Notice was given to terminate the treaty, because it had no satisfactory result; but the French Government had not relinquished the hope of concluding an effectual treaty.

GARNIER PAGES explained the amendment proposed by the opposition against the temporal power of the Holy See.

The debate was adjourned.

The Paris Bourse was flat; rentes closed 69f. 35c.

Spain, Peru and Chili.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "As soon as the Peruvian frigate Independencia, which arrived at Brest on the 20th, had taken in coals, she would sail in company with the Peruvian corvette Huescar."

The London Shipping Gazette says the Government has seized two vessels in the East India Dock fitting out for the Chilian Government.

Marshall O'DONNELL had reported a bill to Congress fixing the effective force of the Spanish Army for the year at eighty-five thousand.

Austria and Prussia.

Rumors of Austro-Prussian disagreements relative to the Duchies continue prevalent. It was reported that Prussia was about to send an extraordinary envoy to confer with the Austrian Minister, and that Austria intended to send a similar message to Berlin.

The Principalities.

Turkey is said to have called on the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris, to send Commissioners to Bucharest, to inquire into the abdication of COUZA, &c. It is asserted that the Powers are unanimous in favor of a conference to consider the question raised by the abdication. It is stated that the conference will be held at Paris and not at Constantinople

Poland.

The Imperial ukase permits Jews who have received a diploma at the Russian or Polish university, to enter the public service at Poland with the rights and privileges of public functionaries.

Brazil.

The mails from Rio Janeiro to the 9th have reached Lisbon. The news was not received in time for the Hibernian.

Financial and Commercial.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

Funds on the 20th were rather firmer. Grand Trunk of Canada shares experienced a heavy collapse, touching at 36, having reached 50 a few days ago. The money market is unchanged. The bank rate remains at 7 ℔ cent.

The Times (city article) says: "The bank return presents a slight decrease instead of a further recovery under the head of unemployed notes, and it is evident the present rate of discount is not beyond the natural market point. The demand yesterday was particularly being accounted for by preparation for bills for the 3d or 4th of the month, which fall due on Saturday, together with the circumstance that it is understood a very large amount will then run off at the bank.

Bullion continues to accumulate in the bank of France.

Championship Match Between John Deery and John McDevitt—Deery the Winner by 355.

The large hall of Cooper Institute was crowded last night to witness the ninth contest for the custody of the champion billiard-cue and $1,000 in addition. Precisely at 7:30 Mr. MICHAEL PHELAN rose and announced the conditions of the game, and stated that Mr. CHRIS. O'CONNOR would act as umpire for Mr. DEERY, and GARSTON HUBBELL would act in like capacity for Mr. McDEVITT, with Mr. JAS. PALMER, of Philadelphia, as referee. The contestants then took their positions at the table, and the game commenced. Owing to the lateness of the hour, we are unable to give a detailed report. DEERY started with the lead, and closed the game quite brilliantly. Neither player displayed any great amount of talent, and both disappointed the large audience present. DEERY certainly displayed some generalship, and that was about all. McDEVITT has been unwell lately, which may account for his poor play. DEERY's highest run was 119; McDEVITT's 65.

Among the brilliant celebrities from abroad we noticed Philip Tieman, of Cincinnati; Joseph Dion, of Montreal; Wm. Goldthwait, of Boston; Louis Fox, of Rochester; Edward H. Neims, Eugene J. Plunkett, James Palmer, Henry Hewes and J. B. Bruce, of Philadelphia; and New-York was represented by M. Carme, Phelan, Cleveland, &c.

JOSEPH DION is the next challenger for the cue.

Jared's Email de Paris for the Skin.

TESTIMONIALS FROM ACTRESSES.

The exquisite "Email de Paris" is not a vulgar paste, powder or paint, but a most delicious preparation that gives to a rough or grated skin the color and texture of polished ivory. It cleanses the pores from all those unsightly black-worm specks, and dissolves all discoloration from the skin, whether appearing as freckles, tan or morphew, and is especially successful in eradicating the marks left by small-pox.

It is entirely harmless, and is the only skin preparation that has received the indorsement of Lucille Western, Mll'e. Vestvali, Mrs. D. P. Bowers, Mrs. Emma Waller, and other ladies whose testimonials have been already published.

Since the introduction of "Email de Paris" in New-York, several imitations have been introduced to deceive the public. The only agent for "L'Email de Paris" in this City is L. ISABEAU, No. 822 Broadway.

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC!
DR. VON EISENBERG'S
ÆSTHETICO-NEURALGICON,
THE CELEBRATED APPARATUS.

From the New-York Express.

So many able and earnest men are devoting themselves to medical investigation, that it would be strange if new discoveries were not made. Among the most brillant of these—we may indeed say the most brilliant of all—is that of Dr. VON EISENBERG, in regard to the Etherealization of Medicines; we may properly call it the "Spiritualization," since the Latin Spiritus, whence comes our word "Spiritual," signifies primarily, simply "the air."

Many of the most important and vital organs of the human frame cannot be reached by medicines in a solid or even in a liquid form. Thus the lungs are shut up in a bony chest to which access can be had only through the wind-pipe, the opening of which is closed by a valve, called the "epiglottis," so sensitive and so delicately constructed, that it will not allow the passage, except by main force, of the most minute crumb, or the smallest drop of liquid. Every person who has "swallowed the wrong way" the smallest substance, whether of liquid or solid, knows the feeling of strangulation thereby occasioned. A man cannot, if he would, voluntarily swallow any liquid or solid into the lungs, or the passage leading to them. Herein lies the true reason why Consumption has been so incurable.

As to the entire apparatus, we have no hesitation in saying that we regard it as a wonderful invention—one that, were it not so costly, we have little doubt would be adopted by every hospital and medical college in the country. We are satisfied it would well repay, even if he had to journey all the way from Europe, the scientific man to see and examine it. It is a marvel of mechanical complexity, and yet, when its multiform uses are considered, of extreme simplicity and great beauty. That it will in every respect fulfill the expectations of the inventor, we have every reason to believe. It has been constructed with an accurate knowledge of its ultimate uses. One so experienced in the specialties for which it is particularly intended as is Dr. Von Eisenberg, and for which he has long felt the necessity in his practice, could make no failure. With it he is enabled to surmount obstacles that were hitherto deemed all but impossible to control. He can now approach with certainty and diagnose thoroughly every disease that, in the course of his extended practice, he aims to master. To those, therefore, who are in any way afflicted with loss of sight or hearing, with catarrh, bronchitis, chest or lung diseases, we earnestly suggest a visit to the consulting apartments of Dr. VON EISENBERG. There he will be speedily made to know the possibility of a cure in even complicated cases. We hereto observe that the apparatus is intended also to bring the etherealized medicines into direct action upon the nerves. The nervous system is the source of many diseases. All physicians admit this, and all profess at least to be able to apply a remedy. The Allopathic, Homeopathic and Hydropathic, by prescribing opiates, anodynes, &c., may, and do, alleviate the pain arising from impaired or diseased nerves; but this does not restore the nerve, it is only temporary relief—a relief, too, to some one nerve at the expense of the entire system. The Æsthetico-Neuralgicon of Dr. Von Eisenberg not merely allays the irritation, but restores the nerve to its normal condition. The Doctor's theory is, that each nerve has a specific office, and has its own peculiar susceptibility. Thus, for example, the nerve of vision is insensible to touch; and, on the other hand, the nerve of touch is insensible to light, and so on through the whole system.

From the Journal of Commerce.

We think it is but just to Dr. Von Eisenberg to call public attention to him. There are hundreds in the community suffering from catarrh, if not actually praying for death, who are ready to accept of anything that promises to relieve them from their distresses. To such we would say, trifle not with inexperienced men, but consult, without unnecessary delay, Dr. Von Eisenberg, who, at least, has the honesty to assure his patients whether it is in his power to make them whole or not.

HEARING RESTORED BY A SINGLE APPLICATION OF THE ÆSTHETICO-NEURALGICON.
READ! READ!

NEW-YORK, May 4, 1865.

I have been induced, by the great number of certificates continually published in favor of Dr. Von Eisenberg's skill, to apply to him for advice concerning my deafness of many years' standing. I placed myself under his care, and to my utmost delight he made me hear perfectly well by a single painless application of Dr. Von Eisenberg's "Æsthetico-Neuralgicon." I have great pleasure in being able to state that his skill in restoring hearing surpasses anything I ever saw or heard of. His attention to the patient is highly commendable.

JOHN WAKELY, No. 104 Monroe-st.

MIRACULOUS CURE OF THE CHRONIC CATARRH, ASSUMING THE FORM OF CONSUMPTION.

I have been suffering for a long time from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, and a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery, and very painful. My nostrils were continually obstructed with a pouring of fluid. I had frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, generally attended with spitting of blood. I have been treated by many eminent physicians without success. Recently the Catarrh became so offensive that I could not go into society. Hearing of DR. VON EISENBERG'S new invention, I thought I would apply to him as a last resource. Having been satisfied with his diagnosis, I submitted to his treatment, and have every reason to be abundantly satisfied, as I am completely cured, and my health so much renovated that I feel better than I felt for the last fifteen years. It is a blessing that experience gives the Doctor the power to restore such a shattered constitution to perfect vigor. I now feel very happy to be able to give this testimonial in favor of Dr. Von Eisenberg's inimitable skill.

Meserole-av.,
Greenpoint, Long Island.

RESTORATION OF SIGHT.

I, Lawrence Grenna, No. 186 East 38th-st., New-York City, have been suffering from blindness of the left eye for a considerable period. The eye was continually in a state of great inflammation, from which the good eye became affected, and, indeed, my general health was greatly injured by it. Hearing of Dr. Von Eisenberg's great reputation, and as every one said mine was a hopeless case, I called on the Doctor, who, after examining me, undertook my case, and within a fortnight I found myself almost completely cured. It is now a month since I placed myself under Dr. Von Eisenberg's treatment, and I am happy to be able to state that the inflammation is entirely gone, so that I see perfectly with both eyes, added to which I am in good health—a blessing I have not enjoyed since I was blind. I do conscientiously and gratefully swear to the above statement, in a court of justice, at the City Hall of the City of New-York, the 10th day of October, 1864.

LAWRENCE GRENNA.

Sworn before me this 10th day of October, 1864.

TRIBUTES TO THE "TRIBUTE BOOK."

FROM ANDREW JOHNSON, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

"The information contained in the TRIBUTE BOOK is of great interest, and the beautiful manner in which it is bound is highly creditable to the enterprise and success of your efforts as publishers."

FROM HON. JOHN BIGELOW, UNITED STATES MINISTER IN PARIS.

"Your TRIBUTE BOOK is a beautiful and precious monument of patriotism.

"I doubt if the world has ever witnessed such a demonstration of warm-hearted devotion to country and humanity as Mr. Goodrich has so conveniently embalmed.

"It will be henceforth, I hope forever, one of the ornaments of the library of this Legation."

FROM JOHN BRIGHT, M. P.

ROCHDALE, 15th Nov., 1865.

"DEAR SIRS: I write to thank you for remembering me and for sending me your handsome work, the TRIBUTE BOOK, the great record of the wonderful doings of your people during your great struggle. I think no other nation can produce such a record of patriotic efforts and sacrifices in any cause, and it will remain forever a matter of pride for your children in future times.

FROM MRS. ABRAHAM LINCOLN, CHICAGO.

"It will always be retained and cherished in the family with grateful feelings. A faithful illustration of the generosity and gratitude of our country toward the patriotic soldiers who so nobly fought in our defence."

The New-York Evening Post says:
"It is the story of seventy millions of dollars."
The Boston Journal says:
"It is full of interest, beauty and real splendor."

The Boston Transcript says:
"It is most desirable to own and prize."
The New-York Evangelist says:
"It is well worth the price asked for it."
The New-York Observer says:

"It was fitting that the story of those who at home sustained the Government in its life-struggle should be put on lasting record. Not they only who go to the battle-field are the defenders and saviours of their country. The women and the men who give their labor, their time and their money to the cause, who work and pray and send, who think of the sick and wounded and dying, and supply the hospitals and camps with food and medicines and the bread of life, these are entitled to the grateful memories of posterity, and the hearty commendations of their compatriots. It was a happy thought to embalm these patriotic works in one magnificent volume, a record of the voluntary offerings of the American people to the cause of their beloved country in the hour of its deadly peril."

The TRIBUTE BOOK is prepared with fidelity and impartiality, and the result is honorable to the philanthropic and religious character of the people. The mechanical execution challenges criticism. A large quarto, on the purest paper, combining elegance with durability, it is in all these respects, and every other, worthy of the illustrious object it is designed to commemorate. As it is published only by subscription, we doubt not that it will for many years to come be the crowning ornament and treasure of thousands of patriotic households in our happy land, rejoicing in peace and the restoration of a disturbed and beloved union."

THE TRIBUTE BOOK contains five hundred and twenty pages royal octavo, printed on fine tinted paper, and is illustrated by one hundred and fifty engravings. It is bound in Turkey morocco, gilt edges and sides, in the best style of workmanship. The book is sold EXCLUSIVELY BY SUBSCRIPTION, at the reasonable price of TWENTY DOLLARS.

By HENRY EDWARD MANNING,

"Some time ago my intention was to publish a volume of Sermons on Reason and Revelation, as a sequel to those on Ecclesiastical Subjects. In the preface to that volume I expressed this purpose; but when I began to write, I found it impossible to throw the matter into the form of sermons. * * * * Now, my object in the following pages is to show that the Reason of man has no choice but to be either the disciple or the critic of the Revelation of God. The normal state of the Reason is that of a disciple, illuminated, elevated, guided and unfolded to strength and perfection by the action of a Divine Teacher. The abnormal is that of a critic, testing, measuring, limiting the matter of Divine Revelation by his supposed discernment or intuition. The former is the true and Divine Rationalism; the latter, the false and Human Rationalism."—Extract from Introduction.

STATE OF NEW-YORK, ss.—CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW-YORK, ss.

—The undersigned, the President and two-thirds of the Directors of the BOND VEIN COAL COMPANY do hereby certify: That, under the corporate name of the "Bond Vein Coal Company," this corporation was organized Oct. 26, 1864, pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled "An act to authorize the formation of corporations for manufacturing, mechanical or chemical purposes," passed Feb. 17, 1848, and of the several acts extending and amending said act. The objects for which the Company is organized are the mining and selling of coal and the transaction of business in pursuance of the above object. The amount of the capital stock was fixed at thirty thousand dollars in the original certificate of incorporation, and on the 6th day of May, A. D. 1865, it was increased by vote of stockholders to fifty thousand dollars, and the certificates required by law were duly filed, and the amount of the capital stock now is fifty thousand dollars. The term of existence of said company is twenty years from the 26th day of October, A. D. 1864. The number of shares of which the entire stock now consists is five thousand, and the number of trustees who manage the concerns of said Company is five, and the names of those elected for the present year are Benjamin W. Blanchard, Wm. R. Barr, Stephen D. Caldwell, Joseph W. Guppy and Andrew McF. Davis. The said Company was formed for the purpose of carrying on some part of its business out of the State of New-York, namely at Lafayette, McKean County, Pennsylvania, and the names of the town and county stated in the original certificate of incorporation as those in which the principal part of the business of the Company within this State is to be transacted, are the City of New-York in the County of New-York. We further certify that at the annual meeting of said Company, held in New-York, Jan. 9, 1866, which was regularly called as required by law, it was voted by stockholders representing two-thirds of the stock, to remove the principal office of the Company to Carrollton, and to establish a branch office in the City of New-York.

We therefore do hereby certify that the names of the town and county in which the principal part of the business of the Company within this State is to be transacted, are Carrollton, in the County of Cattaraugus, and a branch office is to be opened in the City of New-York, County of New-York.

Dr. KENNEDY'S skillful and improved treatment. Private diseases cured in the shortest possible time by Dr. KENNEDY & CO., No. 195 Elm-st., New-York, without the use of mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. KENNEDY, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 23 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. KENNEDY, No. 195 Elm-st. "BENEFIT OF THE DESTITUTE CHILDREN OF THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS OF THE WAR."—Mr. EDWIN BOOTH, the distinguished tragedian, will, immediately preceding the close of his present engagement, give a matinee at the Winter Garden on the 24th of March, P. M., for the benefit of the institution in 58th-st. for the support of the destitute children of the soldiers and sailors who have been killed in our recent struggle for the Union. The play will be one in which Mr. Booth has not appeared during the present season. As the proceeds will be devoted to aid the ladies of the institution in their efforts to increase their building that they may meet the incessant demands made upon them for the support of the orphans of the brave men who have fallen upon the battle-field and the ocean, they trust that the citizens of New-York will respond in a spirit evincing their sense of this national obligation.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

represent the political character of the country in such a way as to attract the attention of the world, to represent the education and habits of the people, embodying not only their habits in their pursuits, but the food on which they live, the clothing they wear, the customs of the society in which they move—everything in fact appertaining to American civilization. We could show the log cabin where earlier lived one of the Presidents of the Union, the humble roof under which was born or dwelt another President of the Union. The expenditure of ten thousand dollars for the payment of ten of the best informed scientific and political men was a very small matter. It might be necessary to provide an additional structure, and therefore as we could have as much room in the Champ de Mars as we desired, an appropriation of $20,000 was put in the bill for that contingency, on the condition that individuals would contribute an equal amount.

Mr. Banks spoke of the unwillingness manifested by the Navy Department in regard to furnishing public vessels to transport goods to Paris, and said that the resolution had been amended so as to request the President, not the Secretary of the Navy, to do so. Nor was it required that the public vessels should bring back the products of our exhibitors, as that might involve the expense of waiting there for six months, or making another trip to France for them. He spoke of our successes in former exhibitions of the World's industry; of McCormick and his reaper; George Steers and his yacht America, and Hobbs, the humble mechanic, who picked the great lock of Brahman. Out of ninety-five American exhibitors in the World's Fair of 1862, in which our Government, being then at war, took no part at all, eighty-three had received prizes; and at the last Hamburg Exhibition, a single representative of Vermont, Mr. Campbell, had received two first-class and one second-class prize for a flock of twelve sheep, and had afterward challenged the whole world to go into another examination of the best sheep, which challenge had not been accepted. He (Mr. Banks) believed that if the United States were properly represented, they would be superior to all other nations in six or seven of the ten groups. In works of art, although we had an infantine reputation, we would stand in some respects unsurpassed. We would be represented in landscape painting by Church and Bierstadt; in sculpture by Story and Powers and other artists, and in photographs and wood engraving by men who stood first in the world in those arts. In the group of clothing we would certainly be on a respectable footing. In the group of mining no others in the world could compete with us; Russia alone could be named with us in comparison on that point. But while the mines of Russia were on the eastern slope of the Ural Mountains with the rivers running to the Arctic Sea from the centre of population, so that the transportation of the gold and silver cost as much as it was worth; our mines were where railroads were constructed, so that the productions of our precious mines might be said to be as near to us as if they were at the very threshold of the mint of Philadelphia, or of the marts of New-York. There was one other point to be noticed; we had passed through a war of great trials and great sacrifices. The attention of the world had been called to it. There was nothing the people of the world would so desire to see and to comprehend as the material and organization of the American army. The Quartermaster-General proposed to send to the Exposition a baggage-wagon, manufactured in Philadelphia, which followed McClellan in his Potomac campaigns, Rosecrans in his Tennessee campaigns, Sherman in his march from the mountains to the sea, and then in his campaign to Richmond, where it was present at the surrender of Lee. A wagon of that kind, with a history like that would be the centre of observation and attention. A pair of worn-out shoes, the dress of an American soldier; the shelter-tent under which he slept; his bayonet, his musket, his knapsack, his cap; whatever he has, will attract more attention, draw greater crowds of people, and hold them longer and faster in study and observation than the crown jewels of England and France, and all the European States combined. Mr. Banks continued: I want to see also the navy of our country represented—that navy which ought at least to be willing to assist us. I want the people of Europe to see of what our navy is composed. I want them to see our ironclads, our monitors—as novel in naval architecture as the yacht America was. I want them to see the twenty-inch guns that we are fabricating, and the thousand-pound shot prepared for them. Our naval authorities, I am told, will summon the navies of the whole world to discharge their batteries on the uninteresting and silent monitor that lies sleeping in their centre, if they will only allow that monitor in return to throw a single shot at each of them when they have fired to their heart's content. [The greatest interest was manifested as Mr. Banks grew warm and a little excited on his subject, and the closest attention was paid to every word he uttered.] I want the people of the world to see what our machinists have done and may do; and I want, too, to impress upon the people of Europe and of Asia, the conviction that if there is a chance for them to make friends with the Americans, it is better that they do that than to make enemies of them. I want to show them that we prefer peace; that the fruits of industry and peace are our part; but that if war be demanded by their rulers, they must not count on unresisting war, but on one that will carry havoc and desolation into their country, as it has been carried into the countries of our enemies. [Here there was a general murmur of approbation and applause throughout the Hall.] And I want, too, that that simple, that most pure, that most spotless hero of this age, or any age, Admiral Farragut, shall accompany our ironclads, and our monitors, and give to the people of Europe an evidence of the simplicity of a man whose naval exploits have surpassed in brilliancy and glory those of a Dugaey Tronin, who immortalized the navy of France, of a Von Tromp in Holland, or even of a Nelson in England. I want with him and with our gallant soldiers, Grant, and Sherman, and Sheridan, and others, to show the people of Europe of what stuff our navy and army is composed. I would do this in the interest of peace and for the purpose of preventing war. There is not and there cannot be any act of the American people and Government so important as this. I do not myself doubt that Louis Napoleon desires a war with this country. [Sensation.] He sits upon the bayonet. It is a sharp seat, and he cannot rest quiet long; but Louis Napoleon and the rulers of Europe must satisfy the people of their respective Governments that in making war upon America they have an easy task and an assured end. While the Emperor of France has the power to represent America as he chooses and France as he chooses, the people have no medium of instruction. We are silent. We teach them nothing; but when once we appear in that industrial theatre of nations, the rulers of the world are silent and the people speak. The then false, almost infamous, veil of diplomacy which has been hanging between governments and people for centuries, and which is responsible for all the wrongs that have been done, will be lifted, and the people of Europe will understand the people of America. God Almighty, in his wise Providence, has given to the democracy of America the opportunity to stand face to face in the theatre of nations with the democracy of Europe. The product of industry is the language of labor. Every man will understand it; every man will comprehend it, and when the people of Europe shall have seen our products on war, they will give to Napoleon, to the Queen of England, to the Governments of Spain, Russia and Turkey, unfailing instructions not to go to war with the American people. Mr. Banks then went on to discuss the great material interests of the country, showing its development in cereals, minerals, cotton, breadstuffs, the grape culture, the tea and coffee culture, population, railroads, &c.

While engaged in this the hammer of the Chairman announced that his hour for discussion had expired.

Mr. Banks was about to resume his seat when several members applied at once for leave for him to proceed, Mr. Conkling remarking that the House did not have an opportunity to hear such a speech every day.

Leave being granted, and Mr. Banks being thus pressed to proceed, continued his remarks. He said that Mr. Oliphant, a member of the British Parliament, had said the other day that in religion and secular education the United States were ahead of the whole world. If the Paris Exposition of the Nations of the Earth were to be represented in the point of education, it would be a public wrong and a crime for the Government of the United States not to be represented. The same was true of the journals of the country. Those issued from the public press gave to every soul on the American continent two papers a week, showing not only the intelligence but the prosperity of the people. He discussed the financial view of the question, taking the position that such a display of the resources of the country as we could make at the exposition would take from European capitalists all hesitation in investing in our securities at any cost. If the Government should issue its scrip in small sums, paying seven, eight, nine or ten per cent. interest, that scrip would, after a full and fair representation of our national wealth and character of our people, break every savings bank in Europe, unless their Government should interfere with the subscriptions of the people. In regard to population, he said that the valley of the Mississippi, if populated equal to England, would maintain a thousand millions of people. We had now thirty-two millions; but when we celebrate a restored and perfect Union, with freedom and equal rights recognized as the condition of all, our population would so increase that in 1876 we would have fifty millions, at the close of the century a hundred millions, and in 1895 two hundred and fifty millions, or nearly the entire population of Europe. In the hands of such a people, he said, the wealth of which we boast now is nothing. If we present these facts to the people of Europe we will get the first element of power—immigration; and the second element of power—financial assistance and financial security. The German States can send us annually 500,000 immigrants from the middle classes. They will see that our national debt of three, or four, or five thousand millions—I do not care if you call it ten thousand millions—is contemplated with serenity and will be paid at its maturity; a fact like that stated to the people of Europe opens the doors to the millions of Europe who can neither buy land there nor pay the taxes. Who expects to see England pay her debt? Who is confident that she will continue to pay her interest on it? It is in such contests as these that men and nations win an honor that makes them immortal. War is but a trivial thing compared with the developments of a country in peace; and, if, after showing what we are capable of in war, we forbear to show to the world what we are capable of in peace, be the dishonor on your heads, not on mine. It is in such contests as this that the people of Europe will be impressed that ideas have been hitherto shut out from them. No more will the ruler stand between us and the people. The people will understand this question for themselves, and will judge for themselves. The position of America is marvelous. It is only when we group these facts which are known to every man that they almost astonish us. The other day the Emperor of France to recommend this Government said—what think you, Mr. Chairman?—that the Constitution of France was very like the Constitution of the United States. [Laughter.] In the University at Cambridge they have appointed a professorship—for what? To instruct the youth of England in reference to the Constitution and political principles and the present and prospective power of the Government of the United States.

Mr. Conkling—They took that back.

Mr. Banks—If they have undone it they will do it again. The people of England will know of what the American people are composed, or they would overturn the throne on which the Queen of England sits. [Murmurs of applause.] It is the same in France. It is a duty we owe to God, as well as to man, that we should show the people of Europe what we are. Mr. Chairman, but for the very earnest opposition manifested by the gentleman from Illinois, Mr. Washburne, to this simple and harmless resolution, I should not have ventured on these remarks at all. It was not my intention when I rose to do so. I will conclude by one single remark that, whatever of power we have in the field, or whatever of power we have in the workshop, the true power of the American Government and of the American people is in ideas, and that the lesson which the old world has to learn, and the importance of which we ourselves are to learn to appreciate, is that, in the economy of this world, ideas are better than blood and brains—better than blows.

As Mr. Banks concluded this remarkable speech—noteworthy particularly as coming from the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs—members pressed round him and gave him most hearty tokens of appreciation.

Mr. Washburne (of Illinois) got the floor, but did not attempt to address the Committee in its then excited and somewhat turbulent condition, and it was evident the members were in no humor for an evening session; therefore the Committee rose.

MAJ.-GEN. HANCOCK.

HAVANA.

Important Decree Relative to the Native Africans Held as Slaves—Consternation Among the Planters—Havana Affairs.

Havana, Thursday, March 8.

The planters and a large portion of the population of this "ever faithful Island of Cuba" besides, have been thrown into great excitement and no little consternation by the recent publication of a decree relative to emancipados or the native Africans of captured slave expeditions. This decree, of which the following is a translation, if carried into effect, will do considerable damage to the interests of planters and others who have Emancipados in their employ, as it will take away from field work a large number of hands and laborers and put their employers to a great deal of inconvenience. I understand that this decree was sent to Cuba in October last, and only now promulgated through the representations and influence at Madrid of Navascues, who inquired by what authority the Captain-General of Cuba delayed the publication of said decree.

"His Excellency, the Superior Civil Governor, obeying sovereign (royal) decrees, has determined and ordered that within the space of fifteen days, counting the date hereof, there shall be produced by their respective employers (patronos) at the Central Depot of Emancipados in this capital, and to the suitable authorities in every department of jurisdiction, not allowing any excuse or pretext whatever to prevent it all negroes of this class they may have in their employ, belonging to the expeditions expressed in continuation below, be the time or understanding, whatever it may have been, in which they employed them or renewed their original contract, with the knowledge that those who shall not have complied with the above order on the conclusion of the time referred to, shall be subjected by this Government to all penalties and responsibilities consequent thereto:

Almendarez, Brujas, (huisa,) Bermeja, Cabañas, Cayo Sevisa, Caleta de Rosario, Cayo Cadiz, Cayo Sal, Casilda, Guines, Guanaquical, Guantanamo, Guanajay, Isla de Pinos, Jaruco, Jagua Pelada, Leckingthorn, Luisa, Lanzanillo, Matanzas, Manimain, Morro, Neptuno, Second Neptuno, Ortigosa, Pinar del Rio, Paez, Queebra Kacha, Sancti Spiritus y Trinidad, Sancti Spiritus, Santa Susana.

To those employers who have paid for the said negroes, the present half-yearly quota will be returned by the Royal Treasury, in accordance with orders to that effect, that portion which may be due them for the services that said negroes are prevented hereby from rendering them.

They have done their work so thoroughly that all the way between Charnal and Tautoyuquita there is no shelter for man or beast. On about the 19th of February, a Juarist force of about 200 or 300 men, under command of Antonio Perez, took possession of the City of Tlascala, making prisoners of the garrison, and the military commandant of the Department, Gen. NEW-JERSEY.

Resolutions of the Legislature in Favor of an Increase of the Salaries of Naval Officers.

Trenton, N. J., Tuesday, March 13.

Mr. Scovel offered the following concurrent resolution in the Senate yesterday, which was passed by a unanimous vote:

Whereas, The cost of the necessaries of life, of food, clothing and rents, have increased double, and in many cases triple, since the war of the rebellion began; and, whereas, the pay of officers of the navy has been otherwise reduced by taxation, by act of Congress and by Executive orders, and knowing that the salaries of naval officers are by no means adequate to the expenses which their position in society at home and abroad require; since the officers of the navy have no political representation in the country or in the Government, and since the nation can well afford to place this deserving class of the country's defenders, whose record is one of heroic self-sacrifice and patriotic devotion, above want or embarrassment; therefore,

Resolved, That the Congress of the United States be requested by us, as they have been requested by the Legislatures of other States, to increase the salaries of naval officers to a point adequate to the increased expenses of the times, as suggested by their memorial now before Congress.

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolution be sent to our Senators and Representatives in Congress, with the request that they will bring the just claims of the navy before Congress as speedily as possible.

OUR ALBANY LETTER.

Debate on the New Capitol Bill—Speeches by Messrs. Cochrane and D. P. Wood—A Charge of Fraud—Mr. Brandreth's Minority Report Against Creating a Board of Revision in the City of New-York—The Quarantine Bill—Sensation Stories About Fenian Movements.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Albany, Tuesday, March 13, 1866.

The bill appropriating $500,000, to enable Commissioners, to be appointed by the Governor, to commence building a new Capitol, has occupied much of to-day's session in the House. It was supported in an able speech by Mr. Cochrane, of Albany, who exhausted all arguments against the inconveniences and defects of the old building, and the reasons which impel the people of Albany to ask for a new edifice more in keeping with the power, wealth and importance of the Empire State.

D. P. Wood, of Onondaga, replied with much earnestness and ability, arguing that taxation had already reached an unprecedented figure, and that the present was an exceedingly inopportune time to ask for a new Capitol. He argued that it was only sought to commit the State to the project by making an appropriation, however small, in order that it might be urged hereafter that the work had been commenced and must be gone through with. He estimated that, including the amount of town and county obligations for payment of bounties, which would, with interest, reach over thirteen millions to be raised this year, the annual tax for 1866, State and local, would amount to the enormous sum of $24,600,000. Was any tax ever before imposed upon the people of this State calling for twenty-four millions in a single year? Was this the time to build a new Capitol? Would an individual build a new house with an immense debt hanging over him? Mr. Wood further charged that a base fraud was perpetrated in the passage of the bill last year. As that bill passed the House, it simply located the new capital in Albany, but made no appropriation whatever. When it got into the Senate, however, by some manipulation, it contained another section, which the House never acted on, making an appropriation of $10,000. Mr. W. showed by the journals of the two houses that his charge was correct.

Progress was finally reported on the bill, which has been made the special order for next week, Wednesday. Had the vote been taken to-day, the Capitol Bill would have been defeated by a large majority. Such, however, was the condition of affairs last year, until a wonderful change occurred during the last few days of the session. Possibly a similar change may yet be brought about by the Albanians who are wonderfully clamorous for the bill, and who, it is charged, have raised the "sinews of war" to put it through.

The able minority report of Mr. Brandreth, of Westchester, which I send you herewith, remonstrating against a Board of Revision in the City of New-York, is exciting much attention here. The argument of Mr. Brandreth, it is generally thought, will prove fatal to the measure.

The bill, previously passed the Assembly, ceding jurisdiction to the United States over the West Bank Shoals in the lower bay of New-York for quarantine purposes, came up on its third reading in the Senate to-day. On motion of H. C. Murphy, it was amended so as to include the "Old Orchard Shoals," and in that shape passed.

All sorts of absurd rumors in regard to Fenian demonstrations are in circulation here. One is to the effect that the Fenians have seized Prescott, on the Canada shore, opposite Ogdensburgh, and that the people of the latter place have applied to Gov. Fenton to preserve the peace on the frontier by sending troops to that point. I find on inquiry that the stories are sheer fabrications, hardly creditable for a first of April hoax. Gov. Fenton has not ordered out any troops, and has no evidence that any are needed. The fabulous tales told here would scarcely deserve mention, except for the fact that they may get into some sensation dispatches from the capital.

Amusements.

Academy of Music.—The second representation of "L'Etoile du Nord," on Monday evening, attracted a full and thoroughly enthusiastic audience. The opera was given with spirit, and with that closeness and dash which we anticipated for its second performance. It is undoubtedly the most agreeable and pleasing work of Meyerbeer's somewhat brief repertoire, and it possesses the merit of being varied in its action and happily contrasted in the character of its music. Few operas, even under Mr. Maretzek's rule, have been placed on the stage so completely. When the uncertainty of public taste is remembered, it seems remarkable that a manager can be found who will willingly undertake the risk and labor of producing such a work. In this instance we are happy to record a success. The audience expressed its feelings clearly. "L'Etoile du Nord" is as emphatically the success of this season as L'Africaine" was the success of the season which preceded it. The work will be repeated to-night.

Mr. Fradel's Concert.—On Friday next a composer of the genial school, Mr. Charles Fradel, will give and take his first annual benefit at Irving Hall. The gentleman is known, we hope, to all our readers. If he is not, there is a pleasure in store for those who have to make his musical acquaintance. Mr. Fradel, in a quiet, unpretentious way, has, during the past ten years, dragged up a light and airy style of music, which before was tedious and uninteresting, to an art point. In knowledge, capacity and taste he is without a rival. Any one who buys a piece of music by Fradel can ascertain the facts for himself. We desire only to direct attention to a concert, which apart from the merits of the gentlemen who gives it, has claims upon public patronage. Mr. Fradel will be assisted by Mlle. Bosisio, Signor Ardavani, Signor Fossati, Mr. S. B. Mills and other artists of equal eminence.

Winter Garden.—The matinée to-day is one of unusual interest. Mr. Booth appears in two pieces —"Ruy Blas" and "Katharine and Petruchio." In the last-named drama, Mrs. William Winter makes her debut as the heroine.

Mrs. Wilkins—a valuable artist—takes her benefit in the evening, when the "Love Chase" will be performed.

Wallack's Theatre.—Mr. Charles Fisher, an excellent artist, of whose merits it would be almost impertinent to speak, takes his annual benefit to-night, and will, we hope, be remembered by the habitués of the theatre. Planche's excellent drama of the "Knights of the Round Table" will be played.

A CHANGE OF ROLL.

Metropolitan Policemen Stealing Property at a Fire—Recovery of the Stolen Goods.

Two patrolmen belonging to the Third Precinct Police, named John K. Matthews and Stewart J. Donnelly, were arraigned before Justice Dowling yesterday, at the Tombs Police Court, on a charge of having stolen a number of pistols from the premises of Joseph Merwin, No. 262 Broadway, during the progress of the fire in that building on Saturday night last. It appears that after the flames had been extinguished, Mr. Merwin missed five pistols, valued at $32, and on Monday gave information of the fact to Capt. Greer, of the Third Precinct. The Captain learning that the accused, who had been on duty at the fire, were seen in possession of a number of pistols, proceeded to investigate the case. On speaking to Matthews, that officer took the Captain up stairs, and, opening his closet, gave up a pistol and a box of cartridges, which he confessed having obtained from Mr. Merwin's store. He denied having any others. On a subsequent search of the closet, Capt. Greer found two more pistols in the officer's overcoat, and all three of the weapons were identified by Mr. Merwin as his property.

Donnelly was also questioned in relation to the alleged robbery, but he denied all knowledge of the affair, and stated that he had none of the pistols. His statement not being believed, Officers Hudson and Scott were sent to the house of the accused, where they found a revolver and a single-barreled pistol, which were identified by the owner as the other portion of the stolen property. Both officers were accordingly arrested, and they were required to give bail in the sum of $500 each, to await an examination. Matthews is a native of the United States, and 28 years of age. Donnelly is 27, and a native of Ireland.

A Boy Charged with Robbing his Father—Nearly $3,000 Carried off—Arrest of the Accomplices and Recovery of the Money.

Yesterday morning Mr. John Anderson, a resident of New-Brunswick, N. J., appeared before Justice Dowling, at the Tombs Police Court, and made affidavit to the effect that his son, John Henry Anderson, aged 18, assisted by Geo. Havenstile and Thomas Smith, both about the same age as young Anderson, had robbed him of a $1,000 coupon bond, three $500 United States Treasury notes and a $100 note, besides a gold and silver watch, making an aggregate loss of $2,708. In his complaint, Mr. Anderson stated that on the 11th inst. his son broke into a bureau drawer and took therefrom the money and watches. While thus engaged Havenstile watched outside, and after the robbery had been successfully performed they both proceeded to keep an appointment with young Smith, when they gave him the whole of the money and the watches.

The two last-named youths then came on to this City, where they put up at a leading Broadway hotel, and proceeded to make an equal division of the spoils. It appears to have been a part of the programme for Anderson to meet his accomplices in New-York, whence the precious trio intended proceeding Westward. While awaiting the arrival of young Anderson, Smith and Havenstile entered a Bowery clothing store, and selected a quantity of wearing apparel, tendering in payment the $1,000 bill. The circumstance excited the suspicions of the proprietor, who sent for Capt. Jourdan, of the Sixth Precinct. That shrewd officer soon became satisfied that the money had been stolen, and he arrested the two lads on suspicion. A brief sojourn in the cells sufficed to bring the prisoners to their senses, when they confessed to their part of the transaction, and surrendered the whole of the stolen property. Mr. Anderson was informed of the discovery by telegraph, hence the complaint.

The prisoners were committed for examination. The son of the complainant is still at large.

Metropolitan Board of Health.

The Secretary of the Board received a letter yesterday morning from residents of Thirty-first and Thirty-second streets, between Sixth and Eighth avenues, saying that they have clubbed together to have these blocks cleaned and swept at their own expense. Among the complaints that were received by the Board, yesterday, was one from the Eighteenth Ward, requesting "the abatement of the nuisance caused by the Manhattan Gas Company allowing the refuse of their works to be deposited in the river." The petitioners refer the Board to the Health Warden of their district for further particulars. Complaint has also been made against the Hospital for Women and Children, at No. 252 West Twenty-sixth-street. The complainants say that one of the apartments in the hospital has been used as a dissecting-room, and that the effluvia therefrom is noxious and destructive of health. The Commissioners invite all persons to notify them of existing nuisances within the boundaries of the Metropolitan District.

POLICE COURTS.

The Tombs—Before Justice Dowling.

FIRING INTO A HARBOR POLICE BOAT.

About 1 o'clock yesterday morning, as Sergt. Fitzgerald, with Officers Sullivan and Kelly, of the Harbor Police Force, were on patrol duty in a small boat in the North River, they were hailed from Pier No. 30 by Patrick Hanley, private watchman, who demanded their business. The hail was answered and the required information given, when Hanley drew a revolver and discharged one of the chambers at the boat, fortunately without effect. The police rowed in and arrested Hanley, and he was committed for trial in default of $1,000 bail.

ALLEGED LARCENY.

Julius Libman was arrested yesterday on suspicion of having stolen $310 in United States Treasury notes, the property of Hans Nelson, of No. 6 Roosevelt-street. The alleged theft was committed on the 10th ult. Libman lived with the complainant at the time of the robbery, but left soon after. He afterwards made sundry boasts of obtaining money from some one in Roosevelt-street, which gave rise to the suspicion, and resulted in his arrest. He was committed for examination.

BURGLARY IN RECTOR-STREET.

Officer Carroll, of the Twenty-seventh Precinct, yesterday arrested John Connors, Edward Leonard and Peter Downing, on a charge of having effected a burglarious entrance into the clothing store of Joseph May, No. 22 Rector-street, on Monday night. A quantity of clothing, valued at $250, was carried off, and a portion of the property was found in possession of the prisoners. They were committed for trial.

ATTEMPTED RAPE.

Officer Alsheimer, of the First Precinct, arrested Edward Cannon, aged 28 years, on a charge of having committed a gross outrage on the person of Theresa McNamara, aged 18. The prisoner confessed the crime, and he was committed for trial without bail. The outrage was perpetrated on an upper floor of No. 41 Water-street, where both parties were at work.

Fires.

IN DEY-STREET.

A few minutes before 1 o'clock yesterday morning a fire broke out in the third floor of the five-story building, No. 53 Dey-street. From some unaccountable delay in the arrival of the firemen, the flames gained sufficient headway to reach the second floor beneath, as well as the fourth and fifth floors, above. The damage by fire and water was very heavy. The first floor and basement is occupied by Henry Elliott, dealer in rubber boots and shoes. Loss by water $3,000. Insured in the Croton, Humboldt, Home and Laurens Insurance Companies, each for $5,000. The second floor is occupied by A. J. Bates & Co., boot and shoe dealers. Loss $5,000. Insured for $18,000 in the Montauk, Firemen's Trust, and Metropolitan Insurance Companies. The third, fourth and fifth floors are occupied by Colin, Freedman & Stein, dealers in boots and shoes. Loss $10,000. Fully insured. The building forms a part of the Suydam Estate. Damage $4,000. Fully insured.

IN ORCHARD-STREET.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning a fire was discovered in the back basement of premises No. 58 Orchard-street, used as a storage warehouse for tobacco, and occupied by Isador Topsky. The flames, which are believed to be the work of an incendiary, were soon extinguished, causing but slight damage. Mr. Topsky occupied a portion of the premises as a dwelling.

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

Southern Relief Association.—A number of ladies of Maryland have formed an association for the purpose of alleviating, to the extent of their ability, the poverty and misery which the late war has produced among the population of many sections of the South. They therefore invite contributions to carry out the end in view, and especially in furtherance of a fair or bazaar, which they were preparing to open in Baltimore. Mrs. Benjamin Howard is President of the Society, and Mrs. Peyton Harrison, Treasurer. Adams Express Company, National Express Company, and Harnden's Express, will take freight free of charge. Packages should be marked "Southern Relief Fair," and sent to the care of Laurence Sangston, Chairman Auxiliary Committee, D. Preston Parr, Chairman Depot Committee. A certificate of donation will be sent to each donor. Contributions of money may be sent to W. W. Glenn, Chairman of Finance Committee.

Wesleyan University.—Arrangements have been made to establish and endow a scientific school in connection with the Wesleyan University at Middletown, Conn. It has been suggested that it be named the Drew Scientific School, in honor of Daniel Drew, Esq., whose liberal benefactions to the cause of education will, when his plans are completed, probably reach the sum of half a million of dollars. $150,000 is to be raised for this school. A memorial chapel is also to be erected in commemoration of the Alumni and students who fell in the war for the Union. It is understood that these are to be a part of the Methodist centenary offerings. Isaac Rich, Esq., is just about erecting a library building for the university, and a library fund of $25,000 has been raised by the Alumni.

A Billiard Ball.—The friends of Mr. Dudley Kavanagh, the celebrated billiard player, acting under the auspices of the Kavanagh Association, gave that gentleman the compliment of a ball and social reunion last evening at Irving Hall. As the different Committees were composed of gentlemen accustomed to the management of ivory balls on a billiard-table, the success achieved by them last evening, was quite natural. The room was handsomely decorated, and the list of guests a very full one, embracing the names of nearly all the leading billiardists of this City. The display of feminine toilets was charming, and the music superb. Mr. P. D. Braisted, Jr., the Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, and his genial coadjutors may rest assured that they made a good score, and won the game with odds.

Auction Sale of Hall's Paintings.—The sale of George H. Hall's pictures at Miner & Somerville's on Monday evening was a spirited affair. All the paintings sold, seventy-five in number, were the handiwork of one artist, and every one of them commanded a good price. The gallery was crowded throughout the sale, and the bidding was participated in by every person present. Among the pictures sold were the following: Watermelon on Salver, $575; Vase of Flowers, $280; Melons, Grapes and Roses, (panel picture,) $375; Purple and White Grasses, $260; Callas, Tulips, &c., $290; the Duenna Asleep, $275; Peach and Grapes, $255, and others at good prices. The total amount of the sales was about $10,000. This was a success, of which both the auctioneers and artist may well feel proud.

Enraged Bull.—On Monday evening Avenue B, near Thirty-fourth-street, was the scene of considerable excitement, caused by a bull which had been separated from a drove of cattle that was being driven to a down-town slaughter-house. Finding himself at large, the animal became confused, making a furious rush down the avenue. In his flight the bull knocked down Matilda Kregan, aged 8 years, residing at No. 303 Fifth-street, and Matthew Meyer, aged 11 years, of No. 66 Attorney-street, causing severe bruises. After a long and exciting chase the animal was finally captured by the Seventeenth Precinct Police, and conveyed to the slaughter-house of Elias Kutz, Nos. 53 and 55 First-avenue, where he was slaughtered. The carcase was subsequently claimed by Abraham Loch, of No. 335 East Tenth-street.

A Remarkable Incident in Court.—In the Court of Common Pleas yesterday, before Judge Brady, a case was on trial in which the sum of about $50 was in dispute. It had occupied the greater part of Monday, and there was a fair prospect that it would take nearly all of Tuesday to conclude it. An important case was next on the calendar. A proposition was made by counsel in the latter action to pay the amount—$50—in dispute, if the other trial were abandoned at once. The proposition was accepted, and the litigants with their counsel in the $50 suit left the Court, the Judge very aptly remarking, "Blessed are the peace-makers."

The Churches of New-York.—The New-York City Mission have done good service to the public in the publication of a large card suitable for hanging in hotels, railroad depots and steamboats, containing a complete list of the locations of the churches in New-York. It will always be a valuable source of reference for travelers and strangers generally, who, sojourning in our City over Sunday, desire to select for themselves places of worship for the day.

The Up-town Tragedy.—Owing to the absence of witnesses, the investigation in the case of the attempted wife-murder by John Gheet, who killed himself afterward with a pistol, on Monday evening, at the corner of Fifty-third-street and Tenth-avenue, did not take place yesterday, as was intended. An inquest will be held to-day by Coroner Wildey on the body of the deceased. It is understood that Mrs. Gheet is progressing favorably.

Kerosene Oil Accident.—Shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday morning, Agnes Sheehan accidentally upset a kerosene oil lamp in her rooms, at No. 113 Greene-street. The lamp breaking, caused an explosion, when the inflammable material was thrown over the woman's head and shoulders, burning her severely. A physician was called in, who pronounced her injuries not of a dangerous character.

Paving the City Hall Park.—The Committee who have this subject under consideration were to have met yesterday, but only Mr. Ely was present. It is understood that the real estate owners in the vicinity of the Park, including Mr. A. T. Stewart, are strongly opposed to the measure.

Timothy Titcomb.—At the Twenty-first-street Reformed Dutch Church, this evening, Dr. J. G. Holland will deliver the second of a course of six lectures for the benefit of the building fund for a contemplated new church edifice. See advertisement.

Literary and Musical Entertainment.—Mr. E. V. Buck, a deserving young man, will give his first literary and musical entertainment at Dodworth's Hall this evening.

Meeting of Ex-Union Prisoners.—A meeting is called for this evening at Room No. 19, Metropolitan Hotel, of persons who have suffered the miseries of confinement in rebel prisons.

LOCKWOOD'S

COLLAR.

MOULDED TO FIT THE NECK AND WITH A SPACE FOR THE CRAVAT.

The Lockwood Manufacturing Company announce to the trade that they have just brought out a new moulded collar, having more space for the cravat, and in all respects better fitting and better shaped than any heretofore produced (with the exception of "Lockwood's Cloth Lined Collars.")

The paper is solid and will not split, and is consequently stronger and more durable than any heretofore made, being manufactured by the parties who, for many years past, have made the bond, deed and bank-note paper for the United States Treasury Department. In addition to this the collars themselves are made by the same machinery as our best cloth lined goods, and are guaranteed the best all paper collars made.

Each collar is branded with an "arrow," which has been registered in the United States Circuit Court as our trade mark for this quality of goods.

A new line of discount offered to jobbers.
